CD Experts Probe Atom City Debris

Learn Who Will Survive Nuclear Blast

SURVIVAL CITY, Nev., May 6 (AP)—Civil Defense experts prodded into the shredded wreckage of this atom-blasted town today and learned where and how you would die—or survive—in a nuclear attack.

Ripped and crumpled debris of some homes, like two which were standing less than a mile from yesterday's mighty atomic explosion, made clear that none would have lived in them. The mannequin families in them "died"—to a man. Force of the blast was equal to 35,000 tons of TNT. The bombs that leveled Hiroshima and Nagasaki had the power of only 20,000 tons.

Two Homes Bear Up

Two other homes, about equally near, bore up better. Their walls and flat roofs withstood the battering. But the awful force of the atomic storm had swept their interiors into windrows of fittings and furniture, made the house hollow shells. The "people" there fared only a little better than those of the completely demolished homes.

Radiation would have been a powerful weapon against any persons above ground and exposed within the 4,700-foot area.

Harold L. Goodwin, test director of the Federal Civil Defense Administration, said that, "Most people above ground within this area would have died." He estimated a probably fatal dose of 400 Roentgens hit the front line of homes at 4,700 feet.

Some persons would have been hurt, perhaps fatally, by flying debris, too, he said. But those in shelters in the 4,700-foot area probably would have been safe.

Shelters Are Uncracked

An inspection of shelters in the homes bore him out. In the two flattened homes on Doomsday Drive, four shelters were uncracked.

Rescue workers of Civil Defense teams had an unexpected graphic lesson this morning. Suddenly, without warning a jumbled but still standing portion of the brick house where the Darling family—all mannequins fortunately—lived collapsed with a rumbling roar and a cloud of dust. More than 24 hours after the explosion the bomb was still taking its toll. Four CD workers were in the basement at the time, but no one was injured.

The bomb left its tokens of power in big and little ways, sometimes seemingly whimsical in its action.

One 150-foot radio tower collapsed at midsection and toppled to the ground. But another, of similar dimensions and construction and located at roughly the same distance, remained upright, though bent. The transmitter building escaped with some rough buffeting and CD repairmen said the station could be made operative in an hour or two.

A test home 5,500 feet from the explosion, built specially to withstand blast, showed a smashed front, all windows blasted into pebble-size shards of glass, the interior ripped by the passing of the shock wave. The roof was gone.

A Civil Defense exercise team began a survey to see how fast Survival City could be put back in livable condition if it were an actual town.

Interest In Oil Fields Holds Up Austrian Treaty

VIENNA, Austria, May 6 (AP)—American and British oil interests intervened indirectly tonight in the five-nation dispute over future control of Austria's petroleum fields.

The intervention came as the envoys of Britain, the United States, France and Russia and the Austrian foreign minister neared final agreement on an Austrian independence treaty. The crucial issue of oil is holding up final agreement.

A statement given to The Associated Press by Rohoel-Gewinnungs Aktien Gesellschaft (RAG), a subsidiary of the American and British oil interests, said they "never accepted any payment whatsoever" from the Nazis for handing over extensive oil exploration rights in the Vienna basin in 1938.

The statement was made in answer to a request for clarification of the position of RAG, which perhaps is the most powerful single oil group operating in Austria.

Austrian officials had told newsmen that RAG sold out to the Nazis in return for fair and reasonable compensation based on market standards.

Tens of millions of dollars are at issue in the Western oil companies' claim for restoration of their lost rights and compensation for lost earnings. High executives of Socony-Vacuum Oil Co., of New York, and Royal Dutch Shell Oil Co. have been standing by during the treaty negotiations for consultations with the Western envoys.

Highway Fund Plan Rejected

WASHINGTON, May 6 (AP)—The Senate Public Works Committee today rejected President Eisenhower's highway financing plan but then put over until Monday a final decision on a rival bill of Sen. Gore (D-Tenn).

The group voted down the President's proposal 8-4 at a morning session and had planned to try to report out the Gore bill in the afternoon.

But instead the Tennessee senator told newsmen a number of amendments still were pending at 5 p.m. so that the final decision was delayed.

Gore said the committee had approved "the bulk of my bill" with some revisions voted earlier, and voiced confidence that it would be approved Monday.

A key feature of the Eisenhower plan is a 21-billion-dollar special bond issue to finance the bulk of spending on a 40,000-mile interstate highways network.

The Gore bill would discard the special bond issue idea. Gore has suggested a one-cent increase in the two-cents-a-gallon federal gasoline tax to help finance the increased spending his measure proposes. He would retain the present system of year-to-year federal allotments to the states, which also would put up funds.

Army Issues Draft Call For 10,000

WASHINGTON, May 6 (AP)—The Army today issued a draft call for 10,000 men in July, the same quota that was announced earlier for May and June.

The new call brings to 1,918,430 the total number of men drafted or designated for induction since the resumption of Selective Service in September 1950.

Railroad Gets Buffalo Warning

IDAHO FALLS, Idaho, May 6 (AP)—The Union Pacific Railroad reported receiving today its first Buffalo warning in 50 years.

It said it had been warned to look out for buffaloes between Lima and Butte, Mont. That's northeast of here in the Yellowstone National Park area.

Roadmaster H. F. Larsen said no one knew where the herd came from.

Dulles Flies To Paris To Begin Talks

Conferred With Ike Before Leaving, May Go Later To Austria

WASHINGTON, May 6 (AP)—Secretary of State Dulles flew to Paris tonight declaring that "a new Europe, united, free and secure" is assured with Germany's entry into the North Atlantic Alliance.

Dulles had conferred with the President earlier in the day on problems of Far Eastern peace, European defense and negotiations with the Communists. These are questions he will be discussing with other Western ministers in the French capital for the next week.

In a departure statement Dulles announced that if talks now under way with the Russians in Paris can finally break the 10-year-old stalemate over an Austrian independence treaty he will fly from Paris to Vienna to conclude that document.

About three hours before he went to the airport Dulles accepted from West German Ambassador Heinz L. Krekeler a document making Germany the 15th member of the Atlantic Alliance. Germany will take its seat at a meeting of the North Atlantic Treaty Council in Paris next week.

Dulles said Germany's admission to the powerful defense organization—to which she is due to add half a million men in about four years—and completion of an Austrian independence treaty, taken together, "would of themselves open up new vistas for accomplishment."

Prior to his departure, Dulles worked today on Far Eastern as well as European problems. One task was the formulation of a statement issued this afternoon to counteract an impression that the United States is trying to save Viet Nam's absentee chief of state, the playboy Bao Dai, from political extinction.

Officials said the statement was forced by recent reports that the United States was pressing Premier Ngo Dinh Diem of Viet Nam to set up a constitutional monarchy.

The statement said that, "As to the ultimate constitutional organization of their government, it is up to the Vietnamese to resolve this problem and decide their form of government by whatever constituent process they freely choose."

Labor Opposes Security Bill

WASHINGTON, May 6 (AP)—Spokesmen for the CIO and the AFL opposed today an administration bill that would authorize the government to bar suspected spies and saboteurs from defense plants and defense-related plants.

Thomas E. Harris, associate general counsel of the CIO, testified that under the bill the country would get "a lot less freedom but no more security."

Walter J. Mason of the AFL's National Legislative Committee told the Senate Internal Security subcommittee the bill's standards are vague. He urged that existing security programs be re-evaluated before additional legislation is enacted.

The bill, passed by the Senate last year but shelved by the House Judiciary Committee, would permit the government to bar from any "defense facility" persons who, there is a reasonable ground to believe, may engage in sabotage, espionage or other subversive acts.

Employment Rose At Record Pace In Month Of March

WASHINGTON, May 6 (AP)—Employment rose by a record 1¼ million jobs from early March to early April, and the ranks of the jobless shrank by 200,000 to approximately 2,962,000, the government estimated today.

It was the first time this year that unemployment, as measured by the Census Bureau in a monthly sampling survey, had fallen under three millions. The rate of unemployment declined, according to the new estimates, from 5 per cent of the labor force in March to 4.6 per cent in April. A year earlier, unemployment was estimated at 5.4 per cent of the labor force.

The new report was based upon a Census Bureau survey carried out in the week of April 3 to 9. It thus reflected employment in the pre-Easter rush. However, the gain reported was about evenly divided between farm and nonfarm jobs, and in the nonfarm field the biggest increase was in construction.

The joint report said that employment increased by 1,208,000 jobs from early March to early April, reaching an estimated 61,685,000 persons regularly employed. It was the biggest March to April increase in employment on record.

Unemployment did not decline by anything like as much as employment rose because, the report said, many new job seekers entered the labor market during the month.

Despite the brightened employment picture, there were still some 1,111,000 job seekers who had been out of work 15 weeks or more by early April. This compared with 1,062,000 out of a job 15 weeks or more in early March.

CD Workers Study A-Ruins

Butler Accuses Ike Of Hiding Important News

NEW LONDON, Conn., May 6 (AP)—Democratic National Chairman Paul M. Butler accused the Eisenhower administration tonight of hiding from the public things that the people have a right to know.

He said in a speech for the Connecticut state convention of Young Democrats:

"It all sums up to partisan mismanagement on an alarming scale—misdirection of government power in the most sensitive area of popular self-government—the area of press freedom and the public's right to know."

Butler said the whole publishing industry "is vastly disturbed over the censorship rule imposed on the Defense Department by Secretary Wilson," that releases from the department must make a "constructive contribution."

"His rule sets up a paper curtain which may be used by his department to hide anything that does not show him and his department in the most favorable light," Butler said.

"A censorship system as extensive as that being set up under the Wilson order would not be justified even in wartime."

Butler noted that the American Newspaper Publishers Assn. had called it an error for Wilson to resort to censorship to check alleged leaks, but added:

"Mr. Wilson does not understand that his gag rule has no place in the public business."

Butler said that the American Society of Newspaper Editors were even more forceful in their protests than the publishers had been.

Wave Of Arrests Noted In Germany

BONN, Germany, May 6 (AP)—West German intelligence sources said today there has been a wave of arrests in East Germany because the Communist regime fears another uprising.

These informants scoffed at a Communist claim that 521 "agents" of the Western powers and the Federal Republic had been arrested, as announced in an East Berlin news conference Wednesday.

The Western sources said the victims were people regarded as likely to resist Communist domination. They were rounded up because the regime feared the outbreak of another revolt such as occurred June 17, 1953.

Both Men Achieve What They Desired

TEUTOPOLIS, Ill., May 6 (AP)—Clarence Collins and Clem Woermann each received 69 votes in an election for a seat on the Board of Trustees of this southern Illinois village.

Both men reported for service at the new board's first meeting yesterday. A flip of a coin resulted in both getting what they came for.

Woermann won the toss. But Collins immediately was named to fill another vacancy caused by a resignation.

Slaying Brings Halt To L&N Arbitration

NASHVILLE, Tenn., May 6 (AP)—Smouldering tempers in the 54-day-old Louisville & Nashville Railroad strike erupted into pistol fire last night and today, leaving one striker dead in Tennessee and another seriously wounded in Kentucky.

This new outbreak of violence, resulting in the first strike-connected killing, brought prompt withdrawal of a union offer to arbitrate the long-drawn-out dispute involving 25,000 workers in 14 states.

In the South's other major labor dispute, also 54 days old and involving some 50,000 Southern Bell Telephone employes, the company turned down an offer of CIO Communications Workers of America for a full public arbitration of the issues.

Southern Bell called the offer "a calculated attempt to gain from an arbiter when the union has not been able to justify through the process of collective bargaining."

George Leighty, negotiating chairman for 10 railroad nonoperating unions, announced in an 80-station radio broadcast from Washington the rail unions now will insist on a negotiated settlement. He assigned the two shooting incidents as the reason.

Charles E. Wright, 32-year old striking L&N carman, was shot to death last night near Mt. Pleasant, Tenn., 65 miles south of Nashville.

State and county officers arrested four L&N workers and one of them acknowledged firing the fatal shot which he said was in self defense. The Tennessee Bureau of Identification listed the man as Roy Van Brindley, 28, locomotive fireman.

State Safety Commissioner W.W. Luttrell said Brindley hired after the strike started, was arrested three times by state officers on charges of transporting liquor in legally dry areas of Tennessee.

State officers placed murder charges against Brindley and three others, listed as James E. Horton, 31, R. L. Bibb, 65, both of Nashville, and Norris G. Adams, 45, Columbia, Tenn. They were brought here for safekeeping after a crowd gathered at the scene last night.

In Louisville, Ky., another L&N striker, John Kenneth Nichols Jr., 36, was shot and seriously wounded. Police said Nichols and anotrer man were throwing chunks of bricks at the home of a nonstriking railroad worker, Verl Braswell.

Officers said Nichols was shot by Braswell's father, John Braswell, 55, and that no arrest was made.

Three persons were indicted at Birmingham on charges growing out of strike violence.

Observers here said a strike settlement now appears more remote than ever. Federal mediators in Washington still worked for an agreement between management and the unions.

Both walkouts started March 14 and have been marked by increasing violence recently.

Mother Of Year Crowned In N. Y.

NEW YORK, May 6 (AP)—A Utah farm woman, Mrs. Lavina Christensen Fugal, 75, today was crowned American Mother of 1955.

"I am too full for expression," Mrs. Fugal said in an emotion-choked voice as a citation and pin were presented to her.

"I think this is as near heaven as I'll ever get. Heaven must be terribly beautiful if it's better than this."

The title was awarded to Mrs. Fugal at a luncheon in her honor at the Hotel Waldorf-Astoria.

Her eight grown children were present to see their mother receive the praise and applause of about 400 other mothers from across the nation.

The affair was sponsored by the American Mothers Committee, Inc., which each year picks what it considers the nation's outstanding mother for special tribute.

Its citation said Mrs. Fugal had built through love "a home and a life that are models in their every spiritual and material appointment."

Mrs. Fugal, a member of a pioneer Utah family, grew up, lived, worked in the fruit fields and raised her large family in her native Pleasant Grove, Utah.

Her husband died ten years ago. She put all her children through college and has been active in Utah civic and church affairs.

Singer Is Married To TV Producer

NEW YORK, May 6 (AP)—Singer Marion Marlowe, an ecstatic bride, headed for a Bermuda honeymoon today after her marriage in St. Louis to television producer Larry Puck.

The 26-year-old singer was fired last month by Arthur Godfrey. Her 58-year-old husband produces one of Godfrey's TV shows.

The five-minute St. Louis ceremony at the home of friends was Miss Marlowe's second marriage. She was divorced in 1952. Puck was a widower.

Benny Burlesque Of Movie Banned By Federal Judge

LOS ANGELES, May 6 (AP)—A federal judge today forbade Jack Benny's proposed television burlesque of a movie.

U.S. Judge James M. Carter said Benny's planned routine appropriated a substantial part of the film and therefore went beyond the bounds of license to comedians.

Benny was preparing to burlesque the 1944 MGM movie "Gaslight" starring Charles Boyer, Ingrid Bergman and Joseph Cotten. His co-star on TV was to be Barbara Stanwyck.

Several years ago Benny and Ingrid Bergman parodied the same picture on radio with MGM's consent. But Judge Carter held that television is a competitor of the movies and that Benny therefore had no right to do the burlesque without the consent of the picture's owners.

New Foreign Aid Director Favors Eisenhower Plan

WASHINGTON, May 6 (AP)—President Eisenhower's new choice for directing foreign aid said today he is convinced that the program must be continued in the interests of peace and U. S. security.

John B. Hollister outlined his attitude after conferring with the President at the White House. He read a statement to newsmen saying he and Eisenhower had discussed foreign aid and its relation to national defense and had talked over "the objectives of the program for the coming year."

"I am convinced," he said, "that both the best prospects of peace, and the requirements of our own security, make it imperative that the United States continue the mutual security program.

"It will be my endeavor to carry out the purposes of the new international cooperation administration in accordance with the President's policies."

Interest in Hollister's views was aroused when Eisenhower told his news conference Wednesday, in response to a question, that he had no personal assurance that Hollister was in favor of administration foreign aid policies. Sen. Humphrey (D-Minn) said it was "just incredible" that Eisenhower should pick Hollister for the job without knowing his views.

But Sen. Capehart (R-Ind), another member of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, described criticism of Hollister's selection "silly and ridiculous."

"It's pure political sniping and playing politics," Capehart said.

Sen. Bridges (R-NH), who said he had known Hollister more than 20 years, called him "one of the country's outstanding citizens with a deep interest in foreign affairs."

Hollister, a Cincinnati lawyer and former law partner of the late Sen. Robert A. Taft (R-Ohio), previously had told reporters he "never would have taken the job if I had any intention of wrecking the program."

Congressional Party Visits New York City

NEW YORK, May 6 (AP)—A congressional party of sightseers, including a senator and 69 representatives, were welcomed to a weekend visit by Mayor Robert F. Wagner today.

Sen. Thomas E. Martin, (R-Iowa) expressed the party's appreciation for the city's official reception. Rep. John F. Shelley (D-Calif) referred to the late Sen. Wagner in saying, "I know you will carry the same torch as your father did to build a better world for the people."

Bureau To Try Electronic Brain To Forecast Weather

SUITLAND, Md., May 6 (AP)—The Weather Bureau put into experimental operation today an electronic brain it hopes will improve the accuracy of weather forecasts.

The experiment was begun ceremoniously when representatives of the Weather Bureau, the Navy and the Army pushed three activating buttons on the calculator, which is the joint property of the three agencies.

The machine was installed at the new national forecasting center recently opened here in the offices of the Census Bureau, which, like the Weather Bureau, is a Commerce Department agency.

The calculator will be used to make what are known as numerical weather predictions. This means it will be able to digest rapidly, several times daily, vast amounts of past and current weather observation information fed into it and come up with a general forecast.

At first, the bureau said, the machine will be used to make forecasts covering most of North America but later, when its operation is better understood, the area for which it forecasts will be expanded. Also, in the early stages of the weather brain's work its forecast will be for 24 hour periods.

The electronic brain will relieve personnel of huge amounts of detailed mathematical paper work. This will allow the weather man in local stations throughout the nation to give more time to considering small and local weather effects, such as the influences of topography and coast lines, making for more detailed and accurate local forecasts.

The information churned out by the machine will be sufficiently detailed to be used as basic local weather forecasts throughout the country.

Health Dept. Takes Steps As Precaution

Program To Continue With Serum Already Released, However

WASHINGTON, May 6 (AP)—The federal government's program of approving Salk polio vaccine for shipment has been brought to a temporary standstill while a top-level scientific conference reviews production and safety standards.

Surgeon Gen. Leonard A. Scheele disclosed this today. He stressed it does not mean the vaccine is "under suspicion." He explained that the government merely wants to use "every conceivable safeguard."

He urged that inoculation programs throughout the nation continue with vaccine already approved, and said he was confident the clearance embargo would be lifted in a few days.

Scheele, head of the U.S. Public Health Service, told the House Banking Committee the vaccine is excellent despite some 40 cases of reported polio among children who have had their first "shot." He said this is a small number among the four to six million who have been inoculated, and added there is "absolutely no cause for alarm."

Opposes Various Bills

Scheele testified in opposition to various bills which would permit federal controls on such things as the distribution and price of the vaccine. He strongly backed the administration's plan—state control of distribution through a federally sponsored voluntary program.

Some form of federal legislation was urged, however, by Chairman Spence (D-Ky), Rep. Wolcott (R-Mich), the committee's ranking Republican, and various other members.

In general, they welcomed Scheele's assurances that the Salk vaccine will prove itself a potent weapon against polio. But they viewed with skepticism his opinion that the vaccine will get to the age-groups which need it most without stronger direction from Washington.

Scheele told the committee manufacturing of Salk vaccine is continuing—that the shipment and use of already approved vaccine is going ahead, too. But he said federal review of new shipments has been "at a standstill" for several days pending the outcome of the scientists' meeting at the National Institutes of Health in nearby Bethesda, Md.

He said the PHS may decide to make more thorough tests of the vaccine as a result of the Bethesda meeting. It now makes spot checks of vaccine supplied by the six companies licensed to make it. Shipments by one company—the Cutter Laboratories of Berkeley, Calif.—have been suspended as a safeguard since most of the

Flash Hotel Fire Kills Nine

CHICAGO, May 6 (AP)—The fourth flash fire in cheap Chicago hotels in three months today killed nine men and injured 12 others.

Erupting about 1 a.m. while 77 men were sleeping in tiny cubicles on upper floors of the five-story Comfort Hotel on Skid Row, the blaze pushed the roll of dead in Chicago hotel fires this year to 51.

A Feb. 12 Skid Row flophouse fire in the Barton Hotel, only three blocks from the scene of today's blaze, took the lives of 29 men housed in quarters similar to those in the Comfort Hotel. Thirteen persons died in separate fires in two other inexpensive hotels on the Northwest Side last month.

Today's tragic fire brought a proposal from Chicago's new mayor, Richard J. Daley, that the city license hotels and rooming houses in an effort to prevent a recurrence. He also suggested in a conference with top city officials that city-operated, nonprofit lodging houses for Skid Row habitues be constructed.

Firemen found most of the victims suffocated in their 65-cents-a-night 6x7 feet cubicles on the second and third floors of the hostelry. Bodies of three others who apparently had dozed off while watching a television show were found in chairs on the second floor.

Dulles Flies To Paris To Begin Talks

Conferred With Ike Before Leaving, May Go Later To Austria

WASHINGTON, May 6 (AP)—Secretary of State Dulles flew to Paris tonight declaring that "a new Europe, united, free and secure" is assured with Germany's entry into the North Atlantic Alliance.

Labor Opposes Security Bill

WASHINGTON, May 6 (AP)—Spokesmen for the CIO and the AFL opposed today an administration bill that would authorize the government to bar suspected spies and saboteurs from defense plants and defense-related plants.

Thomas E. Harris, associate general counsel of the CIO, testified that under the bill the country would get "a lot less freedom but no more security."

Walter J. Mason of the AFL's National Legislative Committee told the Senate Internal Security subcommittee the bill's standards are vague. He urged that existing security programs be re-evaluated before additional legislation is enacted.

The bill, passed by the Senate last year but shelved by the House Judiciary Committee, would permit the government to bar from any "defense facility" persons who, there is a reasonable ground to believe, may engage in sabotage, espionage or other subversive acts.

Railroad Gets Buffalo Warning

IDAHO FALLS, Idaho, May 6 (AP)—The Union Pacific Railroad reported receiving today its first Buffalo warning in 50 years.

It said it had been warned to look out for buffaloes between Lima and Butte, Mont. That's northeast of here in the Yellowstone National Park area.

Roadmaster H. F. Larsen said no one knew where the herd came from.

Employment Rose At Record Pace In Month Of March

WASHINGTON, May 6 (AP)—Employment rose by a record 1¼ million jobs from early March to early April, and the ranks of the jobless shrank by 200,000 to approximately 2,962,000, the government estimated today.

It was the first time this year that unemployment, as measured by the Census Bureau in a monthly sampling survey, had fallen under three millions. The rate of unemployment declined, according to the new estimates, from 5 per cent of the labor force in March to 4.6 per cent in April. A year earlier, unemployment was estimated at 5.4 per cent of the labor force.

The new report was based upon a Census Bureau survey carried out in the week of April 3 to 9. It thus reflected employment in the pre-Easter rush. However, the gain reported was about evenly divided between farm and nonfarm jobs, and in the nonfarm field the biggest increase was in construction.

The joint report said that employment increased by 1,208,000 jobs from early March to early April, reaching an estimated 61,685,000 persons regularly employed. It was the biggest March to April increase in employment on record.

Unemployment did not decline by anything like as much as employment rose because, the report said, many new job seekers entered the labor market during the month.

Despite the brightened employment picture, there were still some 1,111,000 job seekers who had been out of work 15 weeks or more by early April. This compared with 1,062,000 out of a job 15 weeks or more in early March.

CD Workers Study A-Ruins

Butler Accuses Ike Of Hiding Important News

NEW LONDON, Conn., May 6 (AP)—Democratic National Chairman Paul M. Butler accused the Eisenhower administration tonight of hiding from the public things that the people have a right to know.

He said in a speech for the Connecticut state convention of Young Democrats:

"It all sums up to partisan mismanagement on an alarming scale—misdirection of government power in the most sensitive area of popular self-government—the area of press freedom and the public's right to know."

Butler said the whole publishing industry "is vastly disturbed over the censorship rule imposed on the Defense Department by Secretary Wilson," that releases from the department must make a "constructive contribution."

"His rule sets up a paper curtain which may be used by his department to hide anything that does not show him and his department in the most favorable light," Butler said.

"A censorship system as extensive as that being set up under the Wilson order would not be justified even in wartime."

Butler noted that the American Newspaper Publishers Assn. had called it an error for Wilson to resort to censorship to check alleged leaks, but added:

"Mr. Wilson does not understand that his gag rule has no place in the public business."

Butler said that the American Society of Newspaper Editors were even more forceful in their protests than the publishers had been.

Wave Of Arrests Noted In Germany

BONN, Germany, May 6 (AP)—West German intelligence sources said today there has been a wave of arrests in East Germany because the Communist regime fears another uprising.

These informants scoffed at a Communist claim that 521 "agents" of the Western powers and the Federal Republic had been arrested, as announced in an East Berlin news conference Wednesday.

The Western sources said the victims were people regarded as likely to resist Communist domination. They were rounded up because the regime feared the outbreak of another revolt such as occurred June 17, 1953.

Both Men Achieve What They Desired

TEUTOPOLIS, Ill., May 6 (AP)—Clarence Collins and Clem Woermann each received 69 votes in an election for a seat on the Board of Trustees of this southern Illinois village.

Both men reported for service at the new board's first meeting yesterday. A flip of a coin resulted in both getting what they came for.

Woermann won the toss. But Collins immediately was named to fill another vacancy caused by a resignation.

Slaying Brings Halt To L&N Arbitration

NASHVILLE, Tenn., May 6 (AP)—Smouldering tempers in the 54-day-old Louisville & Nashville Railroad strike erupted into pistol fire last night and today, leaving one striker dead in Tennessee and another seriously wounded in Kentucky.

This new outbreak of violence, resulting in the first strike-connected killing, brought prompt withdrawal of a union offer to arbitrate the long-drawn-out dispute involving 25,000 workers in 14 states.

In the South's other major labor dispute, also 54 days old and involving some 50,000 Southern Bell Telephone employes, the company turned down an offer of CIO Communications Workers of America for a full public arbitration of the issues.

Southern Bell called the offer "a calculated attempt to gain from an arbiter when the union has not been able to justify through the process of collective bargaining."

George Leighty, negotiating chairman for 10 railroad nonoperating unions, announced in an 80-station radio broadcast from Washington the rail unions now will insist on a negotiated settlement. He assigned the two shooting incidents as the reason.

Charles E. Wright, 32-year old striking L&N carman, was shot to death last night near Mt. Pleasant, Tenn., 65 miles south of Nashville.

State and county officers arrested four L&N workers and one of them acknowledged firing the fatal shot which he said was in self defense. The Tennessee Bureau of Identification listed the man as Roy Van Brindley, 28, locomotive fireman.

State Safety Commissioner W.W. Luttrell said Brindley hired after the strike started, was arrested three times by state officers on charges of transporting liquor in legally dry areas of Tennessee.

State officers placed murder charges against Brindley and three others, listed as James E. Horton, 31, R. L. Bibb, 65, both of Nashville, and Norris G. Adams, 45, Columbia, Tenn. They were brought here for safekeeping after a crowd gathered at the scene last night.

In Louisville, Ky., another L&N striker, John Kenneth Nichols Jr., 36, was shot and seriously wounded. Police said Nichols and anotrer man were throwing chunks of bricks at the home of a nonstriking railroad worker, Verl Braswell.

Officers said Nichols was shot by Braswell's father, John Braswell, 55, and that no arrest was made.

Three persons were indicted at Birmingham on charges growing out of strike violence.

Observers here said a strike settlement now appears more remote than ever. Federal mediators in Washington still worked for an agreement between management and the unions.

Both walkouts started March 14 and have been marked by increasing violence recently.

Mother Of Year Crowned In N. Y.

NEW YORK, May 6 (AP)—A Utah farm woman, Mrs. Lavina Christensen Fugal, 75, today was crowned American Mother of 1955.

"I am too full for expression," Mrs. Fugal said in an emotion-choked voice as a citation and pin were presented to her.

"I think this is as near heaven as I'll ever get. Heaven must be terribly beautiful if it's better than this."

The title was awarded to Mrs. Fugal at a luncheon in her honor at the Hotel Waldorf-Astoria.

Her eight grown children were present to see their mother receive the praise and applause of about 400 other mothers from across the nation.

The affair was sponsored by the American Mothers Committee, Inc., which each year picks what it considers the nation's outstanding mother for special tribute.

Its citation said Mrs. Fugal had built through love "a home and a life that are models in their every spiritual and material appointment."

Mrs. Fugal, a member of a pioneer Utah family, grew up, lived, worked in the fruit fields and raised her large family in her native Pleasant Grove, Utah.

Her husband died ten years ago. She put all her children through college and has been active in Utah civic and church affairs.

Singer Is Married To TV Producer

NEW YORK, May 6 (AP)—Singer Marion Marlowe, an ecstatic bride, headed for a Bermuda honeymoon today after her marriage in St. Louis to television producer Larry Puck.

The 26-year-old singer was fired last month by Arthur Godfrey. Her 58-year-old husband produces one of Godfrey's TV shows.

The five-minute St. Louis ceremony at the home of friends was Miss Marlowe's second marriage. She was divorced in 1952. Puck was a widower.

Congressional Party Visits New York City

NEW YORK, May 6 (AP)—A congressional party of sightseers, including a senator and 69 representatives, were welcomed to a weekend visit by Mayor Robert F. Wagner today.

Sen. Thomas E. Martin, (R-Iowa) expressed the party's appreciation for the city's official reception. Rep. John F. Shelley (D-Calif) referred to the late Sen. Wagner in saying, "I know you will carry the same torch as your father did to build a better world for the people."

Bureau To Try Electronic Brain To Forecast Weather

SUITLAND, Md., May 6 (AP)—The Weather Bureau put into experimental operation today an electronic brain it hopes will improve the accuracy of weather forecasts.

The experiment was begun ceremoniously when representatives of the Weather Bureau, the Navy and the Army pushed three activating buttons on the calculator, which is the joint property of the three agencies.

The machine was installed at the new national forecasting center recently opened here in the offices of the Census Bureau, which, like the Weather Bureau, is a Commerce Department agency.

The calculator will be used to make what are known as numerical weather predictions. This means it will be able to digest rapidly, several times daily, vast amounts of past and current weather observation information fed into it and come up with a general forecast.

At first, the bureau said, the machine will be used to make forecasts covering most of North America but later, when its operation is better understood, the area for which it forecasts will be expanded. Also, in the early stages of the weather brain's work its forecast will be for 24 hour periods.

The electronic brain will relieve personnel of huge amounts of detailed mathematical paper work. This will allow the weather man in local stations throughout the nation to give more time to considering small and local weather effects, such as the influences of topography and coast lines, making for more detailed and accurate local forecasts.

The information churned out by the machine will be sufficiently detailed to be used as basic local weather forecasts throughout the country.

Benny Burlesque Of Movie Banned By Federal Judge

LOS ANGELES, May 6 (AP)—A federal judge today forbade Jack Benny's proposed television burlesque of a movie.

U.S. Judge James M. Carter said Benny's planned routine appropriated a substantial part of the film and therefore went beyond the bounds of license to comedians.

Benny was preparing to burlesque the 1944 MGM movie "Gaslight" starring Charles Boyer, Ingrid Bergman and Joseph Cotten. His co-star on TV was to be Barbara Stanwyck.

Several years ago Benny and Ingrid Bergman parodied the same picture on radio with MGM's consent. But Judge Carter held that television is a competitor of the movies and that Benny therefore had no right to do the burlesque without the consent of the picture's owners.

New Foreign Aid Director Favors Eisenhower Plan

WASHINGTON, May 6 (AP)—President Eisenhower's new choice for directing foreign aid said today he is convinced that the program must be continued in the interests of peace and U. S. security.

John B. Hollister outlined his attitude after conferring with the President at the White House. He read a statement to newsmen saying he and Eisenhower had discussed foreign aid and its relation to national defense and had talked over "the objectives of the program for the coming year."

"I am convinced," he said, "that both the best prospects of peace, and the requirements of our own security, make it imperative that the United States continue the mutual security program.

"It will be my endeavor to carry out the purposes of the new international cooperation administration in accordance with the President's policies."

Interest in Hollister's views was aroused when Eisenhower told his news conference Wednesday, in response to a question, that he had no personal assurance that Hollister was in favor of administration foreign aid policies. Sen. Humphrey (D-Minn) said it was "just incredible" that Eisenhower should pick Hollister for the job without knowing his views.

But Sen. Capehart (R-Ind), another member of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, described criticism of Hollister's selection "silly and ridiculous."

"It's pure political sniping and playing politics," Capehart said.

Sen. Bridges (R-NH), who said he had known Hollister more than 20 years, called him "one of the country's outstanding citizens with a deep interest in foreign affairs."

Hollister, a Cincinnati lawyer and former law partner of the late Sen. Robert A. Taft (R-Ohio), previously had told reporters he "never would have taken the job if I had any intention of wrecking the program."

Health Dept. Takes Steps As Precaution

Program To Continue With Serum Already Released, However

WASHINGTON, May 6 (AP)—The federal government's program of approving Salk polio vaccine for shipment has been brought to a temporary standstill while a top-level scientific conference reviews production and safety standards.

Surgeon Gen. Leonard A. Scheele disclosed this today. He stressed it does not mean the vaccine is "under suspicion." He explained that the government merely wants to use "every conceivable safeguard."

He urged that inoculation programs throughout the nation continue with vaccine already approved, and said he was confident the clearance embargo would be lifted in a few days.

Scheele, head of the U.S. Public Health Service, told the House Banking Committee the vaccine is excellent despite some 40 cases of reported polio among children who have had their first "shot." He said this is a small number among the four to six million who have been inoculated, and added there is "absolutely no cause for alarm."

Opposes Various Bills

Scheele testified in opposition to various bills which would permit federal controls on such things as the distribution and price of the vaccine. He strongly backed the administration's plan—state control of distribution through a federally sponsored voluntary program.

Some form of federal legislation was urged, however, by Chairman Spence (D-Ky), Rep. Wolcott (R-Mich), the committee's ranking Republican, and various other members.

In general, they welcomed Scheele's assurances that the Salk vaccine will prove itself a potent weapon against polio. But they viewed with skepticism his opinion that the vaccine will get to the age-groups which need it most without stronger direction from Washington.

Scheele told the committee manufacturing of Salk vaccine is continuing—that the shipment and use of already approved vaccine is going ahead, too. But he said federal review of new shipments has been "at a standstill" for several days pending the outcome of the scientists' meeting at the National Institutes of Health in nearby Bethesda, Md.

He said the PHS may decide to make more thorough tests of the vaccine as a result of the Bethesda meeting. It now makes spot checks of vaccine supplied by the six companies licensed to make it. Shipments by one company—the Cutter Laboratories of Berkeley, Calif.—have been suspended as a safeguard since most of the

CHICAGO, May 6 (AP)—The fourth flash fire in cheap Chicago hotels in three months today killed nine men and injured 12 others.

Erupting about 1 a.m. while 77 men were sleeping in tiny cubicles on upper floors of the five-story Comfort Hotel on Skid Row, the blaze pushed the roll of dead in Chicago hotel fires this year to 51.

A Feb. 12 Skid Row flophouse fire in the Barton Hotel, only three blocks from the scene of today's blaze, took the lives of 29 men housed in quarters similar to those in the Comfort Hotel. Thirteen persons died in separate fires in two other inexpensive hotels on the Northwest Side last month.

Today's tragic fire brought a proposal from Chicago's new mayor, Richard J. Daley, that the city license hotels and rooming houses in an effort to prevent a recurrence. He also suggested in a conference with top city officials that city-operated, nonprofit lodging houses for Skid Row habitues be constructed.

Firemen found most of the victims suffocated in their 65-cents-a-night 6x7 feet cubicles on the second and third floors of the hostelry. Bodies of three others who apparently had dozed off while watching a television show were found in chairs on the second floor.

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y., May 6 (AP)—The Soviet Union has asked for 2,200 square feet of floor space for exhibits at the U. N. atoms-for-peace conference in Geneva, Aug. 8-20.

58 Aged Patients Escape Sudden Fire At Baltimore Nursing Home

BALTIMORE, May 6 (AP) — Fifty eight aged patients, the oldest 96, were rushed to safety today as smoke and flames erupted from the roof of a nursing home in Northwest Baltimore.

"It was a horrible, frightening experience," said Miss Mary Land, one of 20 nurses' aides employed at the home.

But the patients were swiftly evacuated and none suffered physical harm.

The home is called the Mount Sinai Kosher Nursing Home.

All but two of the patients were women.

All 10 of the city's municipal ambulances plus an 11th from the Fire Department swept down on the residential neighborhood with sirens screaming to help evacuate the patients.

They were taken, however, just across the street to St Ambrose Parish Hall where Catholic priests joined rabbis to help comfort the old people.

Two of the patients were taken to Mt. Sinai Hospital for further treatment of shock.

A woman identified as Mrs. Gertrude Landry, 56, fell and broke an arm while rushing to the building to help.

Traffic was jammed for blocks as fireman brought the blaze under control by 10:30 a.m. The flames were first detected about an hour earlier by John Mayes, a carpenter making repairs to a rear third-floor porch.

Patients were on all three floors of the building.

Father John C. Broderick, pastor at St. Ambrose, directed that the patients be brought to the church hall when he saw them being put to rest on the grass in front of the home.

Civil Defense blankets and stretchers were brought out to accommodate them. The pastor and his three assistants helped make them comfortable.

Seven Are Given Terms In Prison

WASHINGTON, May 6 (AP)—Two officers and five gamblers were given prison terms today following their conviction last month on bribery-conspiracy charges.

Judge Burnita S. Matthews sentenced Capt. John B. Monroe to 20 months to 5 years. He also was fined $1,000.

Probationary Detective George C. Prather was given a prison term of 16 months to 4 years and fined $500.

Roger W. (Whitetop) Simkins was sentenced to 18 months to 4½ years; Curtis M. (Bozo) Taylor, 15 to 45 months; Albert H. (Real Estate) Smith, 9 months to 3 years; Charles (Gechie Charlie) Anderson, 16 months to 4 years; and Burnie King, 1 to 3 years.

They were jailed immediately. Their lawyers said they would seek bond, pending an appeal.

The seven were convicted after a month long trial. They key government witness, Capt. Todd O. Thoman Jr., testified more than $6,000 in bribe money had passed through his hands to protect number rackets. He had acted as an undercover agent in investigating the case.

One defendant, John (Lefty) Winston, was acquitted.

Queen Elizabeth Ends Parliament As Election Nears

LONDON, May 6 (AP) — Queen Elizabeth II adjourned Parliament today, just 20 days ahead of the general election.

Members of the outgoing House of Commons collected their last pay checks and free one - way tickets to their constituencies.

Britain's 35 million voters will decide May 26 how many get free return tickets—and whether Prime Minister Eden's Conservatives remain in power or turn the government over to the opposition Laborites.

Political forecasters expect about 500 of the 625 members of the old House to show up again—some of them after the political scare of their lives. The new House of 630 lawmakers will convene June 7.

Chinese Waters Mined National Forces Disclose

TAIPEI, Formosa, May 6 (AP)—The Nationalists disclosed today they have sown mines in waters close to Red China to thwart any invasion moves against offshore islands and to choke off shipping to the Red port of Foochow.

The minefields were laid around islands which the Nationalists hold as close as four miles to the mainland.

The move freshly underscored Nationalist intent to hold on to the islands. Foreign Minister George Yeh is reported to have assured the Legislative Yuan (Parliament) today that the government resolutely opposes any idea of a cease-fire in Formosa Strait.

Yeh was quoted as saying the Nationalists regard as "impossible" any U. N. trusteeship for Formosa and stand inflexibly against anything tending to set up two Chinas.

The meeting was closed to the press but officials present talked freely of what Yeh said. They said he repeated assurances there would be no Nationalist withdrawal from the offshore islands, where there has been both Red air and artillery action this week.

Yeh said the concept of two Chinas was contrary to the wishes of the Chinese people and that, apart from a few nations supporting the Reds or taking a neutralist stand, no other countries have proposed such a situation.

Nationalist quarters did not say flatly the minefields were laid in territorial waters of Red China but this would seem inevitable. They said there was no need to notify other countries since it has been made clear for years that ships trading with Red China must do so at their own risk.

reported polio cases have followed vaccination with the Cutter product.

No Details Are Given

No details were given out on the Bethesda meeting beyond Scheele's statement that top scientists in the biological and related fields were taking part. Dr. Jonas E. Salk, developer of the vaccine, was in Washington today and presumably was taking some part in the discussions.

Scheele emphasized that none of the 44 cases of polio reported among vaccinated children is known to have been caused by the vaccine. It will take some time to establish this point definitely, Scheele said, adding it may be "sheer coincidence" that the illness developed among recently vaccinated children.

Besides, Scheele said, some of the cases diagnosed as polio may well turn out to be something else. Doctors tend to be extra careful these days and order full treatment for polio even though the illness may prove less serious, he said.

House committee members questioned Scheele closely about possible "black market" operations in the vaccine. He said he knew of none and, on the basis of experience, doubted if any serious problem would develop.

Rep. O'Hara (D-Ill) voiced concern lest some people make "exhorbitant" profits. He told of reading a report that the six vaccine manufacturers stand to make a total of 20 million dollars profit through the sale of vaccine through commercial channels in a comparatively short time.

Both Secretary of Welfare Hobby and President Eisenhower have stoutly defended the voluntary distribution system, though the White House announced last Wednesday it would seek authority to buy up commercial vaccine if necessary to get it distributed equitably-and to make sure no child is denied the vaccine for lack of money.

South Viet Nam Seeks Backing For Republic

SAIGON, South Viet Nam, May 6 (AP) — A government informant said today South Viet Nam will proclaim herself a republic if assured backing by France, Britain and the United States.

The attitude of these powers, the source close to Premier Ngo Dinh Diem said, is the only stumbling block to the South's revolutionary move to depose Chief of State Bao Dai.

The informant said Diem's government is confident of quick recognition from such non - Communist Asian nations as Japan, the Philippines, Nationalist China, South Korea, Cambodia and Thailand.

U. S. Secretary of State Dulles and French and British officials will discuss South Viet Nam political developments in Paris this weekend. Bao Dai also is expected to be on hand with a personal appeal to France and the United States to keep him in power.

The President of South Viet Nam's Revolutionary Committee, Nguyen Bao Toan, said today that as long as Bao Dai remains as Chief of State there can be no lasting friendship between France and this country.

"We are not anti-French; we are anti - Colonialist," the thin-faced, bespectacled revolutionary said in an interview. "The French have imposed Bao Dai on us against our will. He lives far from his people on the French Riviera and is ignorant of their sufferings."

The French appointed Bao Dai in 1949. Since then he has lived abroad much of the time, mostly in his villa at Cannes. He has not been in Viet Nam for more than a year.

Two Vietnamese assemblages—a National Political Congress and another congress of local and provincial councilors — called yesterday for removal of Bao Dai's powers. The Political Congress headed by Toan demanded outright that he be deposed. The other group called for him to give his powers to Premier Diem until a National Assembly could be elected as supreme authority.

"The Revolutionary Congress is not particularly pro-Diem," said Toan, who once was imprisoned by the French for five years for his Nationalist activities. "He happens to be the man of the day and presently in power. We count on him to give continuity to the country after Bao Dai's authority has been removed."

Auto Crash Victim Identified By Husband

BALTIMORE, May 6 (AP) — A woman killed when a car she was driving crashed into a Pulaski Highway culvert early today has been identified at the city morgue as Mrs. Charlotte A. Hayes, 29, of Washington.

Police said identification was made by John Thomas Hayes, 1956 Third St., N. E., Washington, who said he was the woman's husband.

Bill Has $10 On One Side And $1 On Other

NEW YORK, May 6 (AP) — Mrs. Hannah H. O'Connor found a freak bill in her pay envelope recently. It was a $10 on one side and a $1 on the other.

The Bureau of Engraving said that it was a mistake that happens maybe once in 150 million times.

So far Mrs. O'Connor has turned down offers of up to $100 for the bill from numismatic dealers.

McKeldin Is Lauded For Cat Bill Veto

ANNAPOLIS, May 6 (AP) — Gov. McKeldin has become the cat's meow as a result of vetoing a bill last week which would have prohibited the roaming of felines in Prince Georges County.

His office reports he has received at least 40 letters from cat fanciers throughout the country and today's mail brought notice of a citation from the American Feline Society.

58 Aged Patients Escape Sudden Fire At Baltimore Nursing Home

BALTIMORE, May 6 (AP) — Fifty eight aged patients, the oldest 96, were rushed to safety, today as smoke and flames erupted from the roof of a nursing home in Northwest Baltimore.

"It was a horrible, frightening experience," said Miss Mary Land, one of 20 nurses' aides employed at the home.

But the patients were swiftly evacuated and none suffered physical harm.

The home is called the Mount Sinai Kosher Nursing Home.

All but two of the patients were women.

All 10 of the city's municipal ambulances plus an 11th from the Fire Department swept down on the residential neighborhood with sirens screaming to help evacuate the patients.

They were taken, however, just across the street to St Ambrose Parish Hall where Catholic priests joined rabbis to help comfort the old people.

Two of the patients were taken to Mt. Sinai Hospital for further treatment of shock.

A woman identified as Mrs. Gertrude Landry, 56, fell and broke an arm while rushing to the building to help.

Traffic was jammed for blocks as fireman brought the blaze under control by 10:30 a.m. The flames were first detected about an hour earlier by John Mayes, a carpenter making repairs to a rear third-floor porch.

Patients were on all three floors of the building.

Father John C. Broderick, pastor at St. Ambrose, directed that the patients be brought to the church hall when he saw them being put to rest on the grass in front of the home.

Civil Defense blankets and stretchers were brought out to accommodate them. The pastor and his three assistants helped make them comfortable.

Seven Are Given Terms In Prison

WASHINGTON, May 6 (AP)—Two officers and five gamblers were given prison terms today following their conviction last month on bribery-conspiracy charges.

Judge Burnita S. Matthews sentenced Capt. John B. Monroe to 20 months to 5 years. He also was fined $1,000.

Probationary Detective George C. Prather was given a prison term of 16 months to 4 years and fined $500.

Roger W. (Whitetop) Simkins was sentenced to 18 months to 4½ years; Curtis M. (Bozo) Taylor, 15 to 45 months; Albert H. (Real Estate) Smith, 9 months to 3 years; Charles (Gechie Charlie) Anderson, 16 months to 4 years; and Burnie King, 1 to 3 years.

They were jailed immediately. Their lawyers said they would seek bond, pending an appeal.

The seven were convicted after a month long trial. They key government witness, Capt. Todd O. Thoman Jr., testified more than $6,000 in bribe money had passed through his hands to protect number rackets. He had acted as an undercover agent in investigating the case.

One defendant, John (Lefty) Winston, was acquitted.

Queen Elizabeth Ends Parliament As Election Nears

LONDON, May 6 (AP) — Queen Elizabeth II adjourned Parliament today, just 20 days ahead of the general election.

Members of the outgoing House of Commons collected their last pay checks and free one - way tickets to their constituencies.

Britain's 35 million voters will decide May 26 how many get free return tickets—and whether Prime Minister Eden's Conservatives remain in power or turn the government over to the opposition Laborites.

Political forecasters expect about 500 of the 625 members of the old House to show up again—some of them after the political scare of their lives. The new House of 630 lawmakers will convene June 7.

Chinese Waters Mined National Forces Disclose

TAIPEI, Formosa, May 6 (AP)—The Nationalists disclosed today they have sown mines in waters close to Red China to thwart any invasion moves against offshore islands and to choke off shipping to the Red port of Foochow.

The minefields were laid around islands which the Nationalists hold as close as four miles to the mainland.

The move freshly underscored Nationalist intent to hold on to the islands. Foreign Minister George Yeh is reported to have assured the Legislative Yuan (Parliament) today that the government resolutely opposes any idea of a cease-fire in Formosa Strait.

Yeh was quoted as saying the Nationalists regard as "impossible" any U. N. trusteeship for Formosa and stand inflexibly against anything tending to set up two Chinas.

The meeting was closed to the press but officials present talked freely of what Yeh said. They said he repeated assurances there would be no Nationalist withdrawal from the offshore islands, where there has been both Red air and artillery action this week.

Yeh said the concept of two Chinas was contrary to the wishes of the Chinese people and that, apart from a few nations supporting the Reds or taking a neutralist stand, no other countries have proposed such a situation.

Nationalist quarters did not say flatly the minefields were laid in territorial waters of Red China but this would seem inevitable. They said there was no need to notify other countries since it has been made clear for years that ships trading with Red China must do so at their own risk.

reported polio cases have followed vaccination with the Cutter product.

No Details Are Given

No details were given out on the Bethesda meeting beyond Scheele's statement that top scientists in the biological and related fields were taking part. Dr. Jonas E. Salk, developer of the vaccine, was in Washington today and presumably was taking some part in the discussions.

Scheele emphasized that none of the 44 cases of polio reported among vaccinated children is known to have been caused by the vaccine. It will take some time to establish this point definitely, Scheele said, adding it may be "sheer coincidence" that the illness developed among recently vaccinated children.

Besides, Scheele said, some of the cases diagnosed as polio may well turn out to be something else. Doctors tend to be extra careful these days and order full treatment for polio even though the illness may prove less serious, he said.

House committee members questioned Scheele closely about possible "black market" operations in the vaccine. He said he knew of none and, on the basis of experience, doubted if any serious problem would develop.

Rep. O'Hara (D-Ill) voiced concern lest some people make "exhorbitant" profits. He told of reading a report that the six vaccine manufacturers stand to make a total of 20 million dollars profit through the sale of vaccine through commercial channels in a comparatively short time.

Both Secretary of Welfare Hobby and President Eisenhower have stoutly defended the voluntary distribution system, though the White House announced last Wednesday it would seek authority to buy up commercial vaccine if necessary to get it distributed equitably-and to make sure no child is denied the vaccine for lack of money.

South Viet Nam Seeks Backing For Republic

SAIGON, South Viet Nam, May 6 (AP) — A government informant said today South Viet Nam will proclaim herself a republic if assured backing by France, Britain and the United States.

The attitude of these powers, the source close to Premier Ngo Dinh Diem said, is the only stumbling block to the South's revolutionary move to depose Chief of State Bao Dai.

The informant said Diem's government is confident of quick recognition from such non - Communist Asian nations as Japan, the Philippines, Nationalist China, South Korea, Cambodia and Thailand.

U. S. Secretary of State Dulles and French and British officials will discuss South Viet Nam political developments in Paris this weekend. Bao Dai also is expected to be on hand with a personal appeal to France and the United States to keep him in power.

The President of South Viet Nam's Revolutionary Committee, Nguyen Bao Toan, said today that as long as Bao Dai remains as Chief of State there can be no lasting friendship between France and this country.

"We are not anti-French; we are anti - Colonialist," the thin-faced, bespectacled revolutionary said in an interview. "The French have imposed Bao Dai on us against our will. He lives far from his people on the French Riviera and is ignorant of their sufferings."

The French appointed Bao Dai in 1949. Since then he has lived abroad much of the time, mostly in his villa at Cannes. He has not been in Viet Nam for more than a year.

Two Vietnamese assemblages—a National Political Congress and another congress of local and provincial councilors — called yesterday for removal of Bao Dai's powers. The Political Congress headed by Toan demanded outright that he be deposed. The other group called for him to give his powers to Premier Diem until a National Assembly could be elected as supreme authority.

"The Revolutionary Congress is not particularly pro-Diem," said Toan, who once was imprisoned by the French for five years for his Nationalist activities. "He happens to be the man of the day and presently in power. We count on him to give continuity to the country after Bao Dai's authority has been removed."

Auto Crash Victim Identified By Husband

BALTIMORE, May 6 (AP — A woman killed when a car she was driving crashed into a Pulaski Highway culvert early today has been identified at the city morgue as Mrs. Charlotte A. Hayes, 29, of Washington.

Police said identification was made by John Thomas Hayes, 1956 Third St., N. E., Washington, who said he was the woman's husband.

Bill Has $10 On One Side And $1 On Other

NEW YORK, May 6 (AP) — Mrs. Hannah H. O'Connor found a freak bill in her pay envelope recently. It was a $10 on one side and a $1 on the other.

The Bureau of Engraving said that it was a mistake that happens maybe once in 150 million times.

So far Mrs. O'Connor has turned down offers of up to $100 for the bill from numismatic dealers.

McKeldin Is Lauded For Cat Bill Veto

ANNAPOLIS, May 6 (AP) — Gov. McKeldin has become the cat's meow as a result of vetoing a bill last week which would have prohibited the roaming of felines in Prince Georges County.

His office reports he has received at least 40 letters from cat fanciers throughout the country and today's mail brought notice of a citation from the American Feline Society.

Attorneys To Study Bids Offered On Voting Machines

Bids of two firms which manufacture voting machines were opened yesterday by the Allegany County Board of Commissioners but no decision was made pending an analysis of the bids by the attorney to the commissioners and counsel for the Board of Election Supervisors.

The bids were submitted by the Shoup Voting Machine Company of New York and the Automatic Voting Machine Company of Jamestown, N. Y.

Gorman E. Getty, attorney to the commissioners, and John M. Robb, counsel for the Election Board, will go over the bids to obtain a definite idea of how the bids are set up.

The Shoup firm offered to furnish 103 voting machines of the electrically operated type for $1,573 each. It would furnish manually operated machines for $1,420.

In addition, the Shoup firm will pay the cost of transportation of the machines from Canton, Ohio, where they are assembled, pay up to $2,000 for an educational program by newspaper and radio, furnish a rubber-tired dolly valued at $400 to handle the machines, send two representatives here to demonstrate the machines prior to the primary and general elections next year, give five years service free of charge, and arrange a financing program on a 10-year plan if the county so desired.

The Automatic Machine firm made an offer to furnish 103 machines of the manually operated type at a cost of $1,422 F.O.B. Jamestown, N. Y. The company would also give a five-year guarantee against defects in the machines, provide mechanical models of the machines for an educational program, send two trained factory men here to show how to operate the machines for three weeks prior to each of the primary and general election dates. They would also furnish various items used in operating the machines.

The commissioners and election supervisors agreed on Tuesday to purchase the machines by January 1, 1956 so they can be placed in use in the primary election in May of next year.

The organization will hold its annual communion breakfast following the 8:30 a. m. mass Sunday, May 29, at St. Patrick's Catholic Church. Students of LaSalle and their fathers have been invited to attend, Mason said, adding that members of the school's senior class will be guests.

The breakfast will be held in St. Patrick's Social Center and the principal speaker will be Rev. Francis X. Schulte of Reading, Pa.

It was announced that the club's annual picnic will be held in July, with the date to be definitely selected at the next meeting of the organization.

Gilpin Is Placed On 2-Year Probation By Judge Calhoun

Judge H. M. Calhoun at a special session of Hampshire County (W.Va.) Circuit Court yesterday placed a suspended sentence of 90 days in jail against David O. Gilpin, Romney, West Virginia Conservation Commission official who had been found guilty of involuntary manslaughter.

After suspending the sentence, Judge Calhoun placed Gilpin on probation for two years and ordered him to pay the court costs resulting from the case.

The charge against Gilpin resulted after he fatally wounded Grover J. Michael, of Shanks, last November 27 while he was attempting to arrest Michael for illegally killing a deer out of season.

An outgrowth of the case was the filing of two civil suits totalling $13,500 against Gilpin by Ivan O. Hott, administrator for Michael's widow and children.

Following a conference yesterday between the attorneys for the parties concerned, a settlement of $4,000 was reached.

WILBERT R. SIFTON

County, State Plan Roads Trade In Area

An exploratory discussion on a possible "trade" by Allegany County and the state of some roads in this county will be held next Friday afternoon at the State Roads Commission office here.

G. Bates Chaires, district SRC engineer, said W. F. Childs Jr., former chief engineer for the SRC and now a consultant to the commission, will be here for the session.

Chaires explained that in many counties of the state various roads which are under county jurisdiction have been taken over into the state highway system and some state maintained roads placed in the county system.

During the past 15 or 20 years the traffic pattern of roads in the counties has changed so that some sections of roads which are now designated as county roads would more properly be considered as state highways. The same is true of some sections of state maintained roads which would be more properly assigned as county roads.

In any event, no roads which are maintained by the county would be without repair as the whole program is simply a "trade" proposition. The exchange of roadways would probably follow an even trade as far as mileage is concerned.

Meeting with Childs and Chaires will be the county commissioners, J. Walker Chapman, supervisor of the County Roads Department, and Gorman E. Getty, chairman to the county board. Childs will probably be accompanied by several assistants.

Field Executive Appointed For Potomac Scout Council

A new field scout executive for Potomac Council, Boy Scouts of America, has been appointed, Willis V. Smith, council executive, and Dr. Adam Baer, council president announced yesterday.

The appointment fills a vacancy that has existed since the resignation of Robert Metger who moved to Florida because of illness in the family.

The new field worker is Wilbert R. Sifton of Bobtown, Pa., near Point Marion in Fayette County.

Sifton is at Shiff Scout Reservation, Mendham, N. J., where he is enrolled in a scout executive's training school. The course started April 12 and will be completed May 26.

He formerly worked with the electrical department of Jones and Laughlin's Steel Corporation Shannopin, Pa.

Thirty-one years of age, he is married. He and his wife, are the parents of two daughters and a son.

They plan to move to Keyser about June 1 when they obtain housing.

Smith and Dr. Baer said Sifton has been a successful scoutmaster of Troop 170 of Bobtown in the Washington-Greene-County Council for five years.

He has completed the basic scoutmaster and commissioner training courses in that council.

A graduate of Point Marion High School, he attended Moorehead State Teachers College for one year. He took an extension course in electrical engineering from Penn State University for three years.

Sifton served in the Navy for three years, seeing Pacific Theatre action aboard the subtender USS Eurayle.

Active in community work in Bobtown, he is superintendent of the Methodist Church Sunday school.

Attorneys To Study Bids Offered On Voting Machines

Bids of two firms which manufacture voting machines were opened yesterday by the Allegany County Board of Commissioners but no decision was made pending an analysis of the bids by the attorney to the commissioners and counsel for the Board of Election Supervisors.

The bids were submitted by the Shoup Voting Machine Company of New York and the Automatic Voting Machine Company of Jamestown, N. Y.

Gorman E. Getty, attorney to the commissioners, and John M. Robb, counsel for the Election Board, will go over the bids to obtain a definite idea of how the bids are set up.

The Shoup firm offered to furnish 103 voting machines of the electrically operated type for $1,573 each. It would furnish manually operated machines for $1,420.

In addition, the Shoup firm will pay the cost of transportation of the machines from Canton, Ohio, where they are assembled, pay up to $2,000 for an educational program by newspaper and radio, furnish a rubber-tired dolly valued at $400 to handle the machines, send two representatives here to demonstrate the machines prior to the primary and general elections next year, give five years service free of charge, and arrange a financing program on a 10-year plan if the county so desired.

The Automatic Machine firm made an offer to furnish 103 machines of the manually operated type at a cost of $1,422 F.O.B. Jamestown, N. Y. The company would also give a five-year guarantee against defects in the machines, provide mechanical models of the machines for an educational program, send two trained factory men here to show how to operate the machines for three weeks prior to each of the primary and general election dates. They would also furnish various items used in operating the machines.

The commissioners and election supervisors agreed on Tuesday to purchase the machines by January 1, 1956 so they can be placed in use in the primary election in May of next year.

Men Of LaSalle Nominees Noted

Officers for the Men of LaSalle were nominated at a recent meeting at the home of Cumberland Council 586, Knights of Columbus.

Selected for the office of president were Romanus Helmstetter, Joseph Barry, Norman F. Geatz Jr., Leo Powers and Sidney H. Storer Jr. For vice president, Joseph Stakem, Vincent Lydinger, Thomas Cumiskey and James Morris.

Walter Drumm, Thomas Connelley and Thomas Struntz were nominated for the secretary position. William Lovenstein was the only one named for treasurer, a position he currently holds. The retiring president is Edward Mason.

The organization will hold its annual communion breakfast following the 8:30 a. m. mass Sunday, May 29, at St. Patrick's Catholic Church. Students of LaSalle and their fathers have been invited to attend, Mason said, adding that members of the school's senior class will be guests.

The breakfast will be held in St. Patrick's Social Center and the principal speaker will be Rev. Francis X. Schulte of Reading, Pa.

It was announced that the club's annual picnic will be held in July, with the date to be definitely selected at the next meeting of the organization.

Gilpin Is Placed On 2-Year Probation By Judge Calhoun

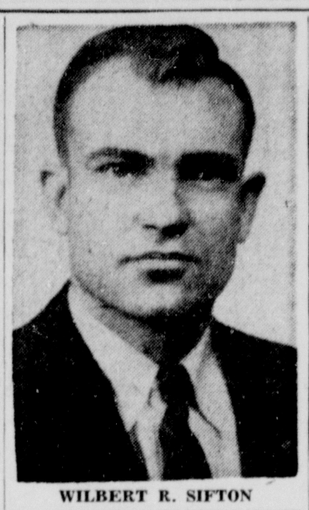

Judge H. M. Calhoun at a special session of Hampshire County (W.Va.) Circuit Court yesterday placed a suspended sentence of 90 days in jail against David O. Gilpin, Romney, West Virginia Conservation Commission official who had been found guilty of involuntary manslaughter.

After suspending the sentence, Judge Calhoun placed Gilpin on probation for two years and ordered him to pay the court costs resulting from the case.

The charge against Gilpin resulted after he fatally wounded Grover J. Michael, of Shanks, last November 27 while he was attempting to arrest Michael for illegally killing a deer out of season.

An outgrowth of the case was the filing of two civil suits totalling $13,500 against Gilpin by Ivan O. Hott, administrator for Michael's widow and children.

Following a conference yesterday between the attorneys for the parties concerned, a settlement of $4,000 was reached.

WILBERT R. SIFTON

County, State Plan Roads Trade In Area

An exploratory discussion on a possible "trade" by Allegany County and the state of some roads in this county will be held next Friday afternoon at the State Roads Commission office here.

G. Bates Chaires, district SRC engineer, said W. F. Childs Jr., former chief engineer for the SRC and now a consultant to the commission, will be here for the session.

Chaires explained that in many counties of the state various roads which are under county jurisdiction have been taken over into the state highway system and some state maintained roads placed in the county system.

During the past 15 or 20 years the traffic pattern of roads in the counties has changed so that some sections of roads which are now designated as county roads would more properly be considered as state highways. The same is true of some sections of state maintained roads which would be more properly assigned as county roads.

In any event, no roads which are maintained by the county would be without repair as the whole program is simply a "trade" proposition. The exchange of roadways would probably follow an even trade as far as mileage is concerned.

Meeting with Childs and Chaires will be the county commissioners, J. Walker Chapman, supervisor of the County Roads Department, and Gorman E. Getty, chairman to the county board. Childs will probably be accompanied by several assistants.

Field Executive Appointed For Potomac Scout Council

A new field scout executive for Potomac Council, Boy Scouts of America, has been appointed, Willis V. Smith, council executive, and Dr. Adam Baer, council president announced yesterday.

The appointment fills a vacancy that has existed since the resignation of Robert Metger who moved to Florida because of illness in the family.

The new field worker is Wilbert R. Sifton of Bobtown, Pa., near Point Marion in Fayette County.

Sifton is at Shiff Scout Reservation, Mendham, N. J., where he is enrolled in a scout executive's training school. The course started April 12 and will be completed May 26.

He formerly worked with the electrical department of Jones and Laughlin's Steel Corporation Shannopin, Pa.

Thirty-one years of age, he is married. He and his wife, are the parents of two daughters and a son.

They plan to move to Keyser about June 1 when they obtain housing.

Smith and Dr. Baer said Sifton has been a successful scoutmaster of Troop 170 of Bobtown in the Washington-Greene-County Council for five years.

He has completed the basic scoutmaster and commissioner training courses in that council.

A graduate of Point Marion High School, he attended Moorehead State Teachers College for one year. He took an extension course in electrical engineering from Penn State University for three years.

Sifton served in the Navy for three years, seeing Pacific Theatre action aboard the subtender USS Eurayle.

Active in community work in Bobtown, he is superintendent of the Methodist Church Sunday school.

THEY DON'T FORGET HER

How dear she is to her sons and daughters and her grandchildren. On this, her birthday, they don't forget her. These flowers are just a token, but in each blossom there is love.

She it was who taught them their first words . . . and their first prayers. She it was to whom they came with their childhood hurts. She it was who stood ready to console them when everything had gone wrong. She it was who taught them how essential religion is to a happy life—how vital it is that they belong to and take part in the activities of a church. On her birthday they remember all of this anew. Men and women now, they are living their own lives and accomplishing their own successes. But the great truths she taught them about faith, hope, gratitude, love and fortitude will remain with them forever.

Grandmother has indeed made a great contribution to their lives. Little wonder each week in church they say a special prayer in her memory.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . . ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

THEY DON'T FORGET HER

How dear she is to her sons and daughters and her grandchildren. On this, her birthday, they don't forget her. These flowers are just a token, but in each blossom there is love.

She it was who taught them their first words . . . and their first prayers. She it was to whom they came with their childhood hurts. She it was who stood ready to console them when everything had gone wrong. She it was who taught them how essential religion is to a happy life—how vital it is that they belong to and take part in the activities of a church. On her birthday they remember all of this anew. Men and women now, they are living their own lives and accomplishing their own successes. But the great truths she taught them about faith, hope, gratitude, love and fortitude will remain with them forever.

Grandmother has indeed made a great contribution to their lives. Little wonder each week in church they say a special prayer in her memory.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . . ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Contract Bridge

by Josephine Culbertson

A CONTROVERSIAL HAND

A "REGULAR reader" asks: "Will you please discuss the bidding of the North-South hands below, and also advise whether or not the actual grand-slam contract could have been made?"

North dealer.
Both sides vulnerable.

	♠ Q 6 4 ♥ Q 10 ♦ 7 3 ♣ A K Q 9 6 5
♠ K 9 3 ♥ J 6 5 ♦ J 10 8 6 ♣ 4 2	N W E S	♠ J 8 7 5 2 ♥ K 9 4 3 2 ♦ — ♣ 7 3 2
	♠ A 10 ♥ A 8 7 ♦ A K Q 9 5 ♣ J 10 8

This was the bidding, as reported:

North	East	South	West
1 ♣	Pass	2 ♦	Pass
3 ♣	Pass	3 ♦	Pass
4 ♣	Pass	4 NT	Pass
5 ♦	Pass	5 NT	Pass
6 ♦	Pass	7 NT	Pass
Pass	Pass

According to our correspondent, in the postmortem South argued that North should have bid three notrump over the three diamonds, and that when he actually went past the notrump game level, South had every right to look for more winners in North's hand.

North, for his part, insisted that South's last bid, seven notrump, was a decided stretch.

West's opening lead was the diamond jack, and it is obvious from the fact that the argument took place, that South did not make the contract.

First, to comment about the bidding, it was indeed a close point whether North should bid three notrump or four clubs over South's diamond rebid. However, there was nothing drastically wrong with North's actual decision, and it was South who was definitely too aggressive in bidding seven notrump over North's six diamonds. A small slam should have satisfied South.

As to whether the contract could have been made, the answer is yes, but the winning play amounts to double-dummy technique. After taking the first trick, South can enter dummy with a club and lead the queen of hearts through East, forcing a cover, and then by cashing the spade ace and running all the clubs, South develops a progressive squeeze against West, who cannot hold the spade king, the heart jack and diamond protection. But, on across-the-board play, this line needs nothing short of an inspiration.

B&O Coal Cars Pile Up At Keyser

This is part of a string of loaded coal cars which went out of control early yesterday morning in the east yard of the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad Company at Keyser. Considerable damage was caused when most of them wrecked after running into the main eastbound line in front of the passenger station. W. K. Dick, ticket agent and telegrapher on duty was treated at Potomac Valley Hospital for severe shock, when he saw one of the cars about to crash into his office. He was uninjured. The cars tore up heavy concrete curbing, tore out an iron fence, demolished five baggage trucks, tore up some track, and left coal strewn all about the area. Rail officials said service was resumed and the main lines opened a couple of hours after the wreck.

Fishermen Fined In Tucker Co.

PARSONS — Several fishermen were arrested throughout the week for violation of the fish laws. However, three of the men were fishing on federal land without a stamp, not knowing they were on government land. They were Glen Mason, R. E. Clevenger and Randolph Fordham, arrested by James F. Fagalore, deputy conservation officer of Harrison County. They pleaded guilty when tried before Justice of the Peace Stark Coberly and were fined $10 and costs each.

Lester Miller, conservation officer of Tucker County also reported several arrests including Clyde Barkley of Benbush, Maxine Hymes of Thomas and Bert Hosterler of Barton, for fishing in a closed stream on Blackwater River and fishing before the season opened. They were each fined $20 and costs.

Nick DiMaio of Thomas was arrested for exceeding the bag limit of trout. He was fined $20 and costs with all four violators being tried before Justice of the Peace O. B. Collins in Thomas.

James Menear of Morgantown, was arrested at Slip Hill-Mill Run for fishing without a government stamp on National Forest land. He was fined $10 and costs when tried before Justice of the Peace, Stark Coberly of Parsons.

One fisherman, Charles Hymes, 20 of Hambleton narrowly escaped with his life while fishing, when he apparently fainted and slid into three feet of water. He would have drowned but for the efforts of his little nine-year-old brother, Johnny, who succeeded in holding up his head while calling for help. A man named Rinehart from Aurora came to his rescue, helped drag Hymes from the water and returned him to his home in Hambleton before he fully regained consciousness.

Goods Made Here Among Exports To S. America

Cumberland is one of six Maryland cities whose exports to Venezuela last year helped to put Maryland among the top 20 states in the U. S. in dollar volume of exports to the important South American market.

A recent survey showed that Cumberland sent rubber products (Kelly Springfield tires), while Baltimore sent beverages, bottling equipment, cement-making machinery, chemicals, food, galvanized ware, kitchen cabinets, paints, plumbing fixtures, tinware and X-ray equipment.

Bladensburg sent anesthesia gases and welding equipment, Sparrow's Point shipped iron and steel products, Hurlock sent metal containers, and Salisbury, pumps.

In all, Maryland ships about $7,000,000 worth of farm and factory goods to Venezuela each year, and the U. S. sends a total of $525,000,000 in exports to the South American nation, 61 per cent of all that the country buys from outside.

The information was compiled by Econometric Specialists, Inc., for Creole Petroleum Corporation, a U. S. oil company operating in Venezuela, and was based on figures from the U. S. Department of Commerce, the U. S. Customs, and from state and local Chambers of Commerce.

The move will be permanent, Col. Mays said, though the office will use temporarily space in the St. James Prep School. Permanent quarters are expected to be available in the town after the summer.

Goods Made Here Among Exports To S. America

Cumberland is one of six Maryland cities whose exports to Venezuela last year helped to put Maryland among the top 20 states in the U. S. in dollar volume of exports to the important South American market.

A recent survey showed that Cumberland sent rubber products (Kelly Springfield tires), while Baltimore sent beverages, bottling equipment, cement-making machinery, chemicals, food, galvanized ware, kitchen cabinets, paints, plumbing fixtures, tinware and X-ray equipment.

Bladensburg sent anesthesia gases and welding equipment. Sparrow's Point shipped iron and steel products. Hurlock sent metal containers, and Salisbury, pumps.

In all, Maryland ships about $7,000,000 worth of farm and factory goods to Venezuela each year, and the U. S. sends a total of $525,000,000 in exports to the South American nation, 61 per cent of all that the country buys from outside.

The information was compiled by Econometric Specialists, Inc., for Creole Petroleum Corporation, a U. S. oil company operating in Venezuela, and was based on figures from the U. S. Department of Commerce, the U. S. Customs, and from state and local Chambers of Commerce.

National Selective Service Regional Office Move Slated

PHILADELPHIA, May 6 (AP)—The regional field office of the National Selective Service will move from Philadelphia to St. James, Md., four miles outside Hagerstown, about June 6.

The office here, responsible for coordinating and assisting state Selective Service operations in the 2nd Army area, presently is staffed by two Army officers and a secretary.

The two officers—Maj. Henry W. Storey and Col. Lee G. Maye—will move to the Maryland office. A new secretary will be engaged there. There will be no other personnel, a spokesman said today.

Col. Lee G. Mays said the reason for the shift is to provide Region 2 with a more centrally located office. Region 2 embraces Ohio, Kentucky, West Virginia, Virginia, Pennsylvania, Delaware, Maryland and the District of Columbia.

The move will be permanent, Col. Mays said, though the office will use temporarily space in the St. James Prep School. Permanent quarters are expected to be available in the town after the summer.

Senator Knowland Not So 'Irregular'

If one looks only at the voting record of Senator William F. Knowland, Republican leader in the Senate, he appears more nearly a "regular" than his statements on foreign policy make him out to be.

At the 1953 and 1954 sessions, Senator Knowland went down the line with the administration on every important roll call but those on the Bricker amendment and censure of McCarthy. He was one of a minority of Republicans voting in 1953 against a proposal by Senator McCarthy to penalize foreign aid recipients if they traded with Red China. Also in 1953, Knowland voted against a move by Senator John W. Bricker to forbid trial in foreign courts of U. S. troops serving with NATO.

But when it comes to the U.N., the U.S., and Red China, Knowland has consistently opposed administration attempts at keeping the door open for negotiations with Red China. Before he became majority leader, as chairman of the Senate Republican Policy Committee in 1953, Knowland introduced a resolution calling for U. S. withdrawal from the U.N. if Red China were admitted. In the end, the Senate declared that "it is the sense of Congress that the Chinese Communist government should not be admitted."

Knowland was advocating a blockade of Red China as long ago as February 7, 1953. He became acting majority leader only on June 10, 1953. He was elected majority leader on August 4, after the death of Senator Taft.

Curiously, five senators who were absent from that caucus were on record as favoring a postponement of choosing a successor to Taft. They were Styles Bridges (N.H.), McCarthy, Bricker, Herman Welker (Ida.), and George W. Malone (Nev.), all members of the Republican right wing for which Knowland is becoming increasingly the spokesman.

Knowland on November 27, 1954, repeated his demand for a blockade of Red China, at the same time saying that he had not consulted with the State or Defense Departments. Secretary of State Dulles first and then President Eisenhower ruled out a blockade as an "act of war."

Then on December 1 and 2, Knowland twice voted against Senate censure or condemnation of Sen. McCarthy. There followed a series of statements from President Eisenhower, the White House, and Knowland, saying the reports of differences between them were being exaggerated. And on January 4 Senate Republicans re-elected Knowland as their leader.

As recently as April 27, Knowland attacked the administration's willingness to negotiate with the Red Chinese. At the same time he said his opposition on this score did not—"up to the present moment"—affect his position as Republican leader.

These Days

By George E. Sokolsky

The Battle Against God

No matter what is being done in some countries to kill God, somehow the memory of His loving kindness lingers and the men of power discover themselves to be dwarfed things in His presence. I was reading recently a radio talk made in Albania which contained these paragraphs:

"Education against superstitions is of great importance. But, unfortunately, many parents do little to educate their children in a spirit which will free them of religious superstitions. Why is it so? In reality the parents do their best to teach them how to keep clean and how to respect grown people. They also help them understand the facts of the present (word missing). But they forget to educate their children in a way which will free them of religious superstitions which are very harmful, especially for children.

"Tales about God, such as nothing can escape the so-called God's eye and that the smallest sin is punished, exert a strong effect on children. So do the stories about the horrible tortures in purgatory and those which say that man's steps are shadowed by a devil."

It is interesting to note that all the efforts of the atheists, backed by all the power of government, cannot penetrate into the family circle. What is here said about Albania can be applied to all the countries behind the iron curtain. No matter what they do and what they say, mothers continue to bootleg God into the home, at great risk to themselves, for their own children may be government spies.

The speaker on the broadcast, whose name is not given, tells this:

'At home we must listen to our parents. They tell us tales about God. So I again forget the words of my teacher and respect only what my mother says.' Another pupil, the daughter of religious parents, writes: 'When I am at school I hardly believe in God, but when I get home I begin to believe in God.' This disharmony between the family and the school mutilates the child's soul, harms, and make difficult the development of his will, and teaches the pupil to become a hypocrite."

Parents are called upon to stop teaching doctrines of Christianity in their homes. They are warned that such children are bound to have unhappy lives, by which is meant that they will be precluded from joining the ruling party and therefore their opportunities in life will be limited.

Father Georges Bissonnette, the Roman Catholic priest who was expelled from Moscow, explains this attitude:

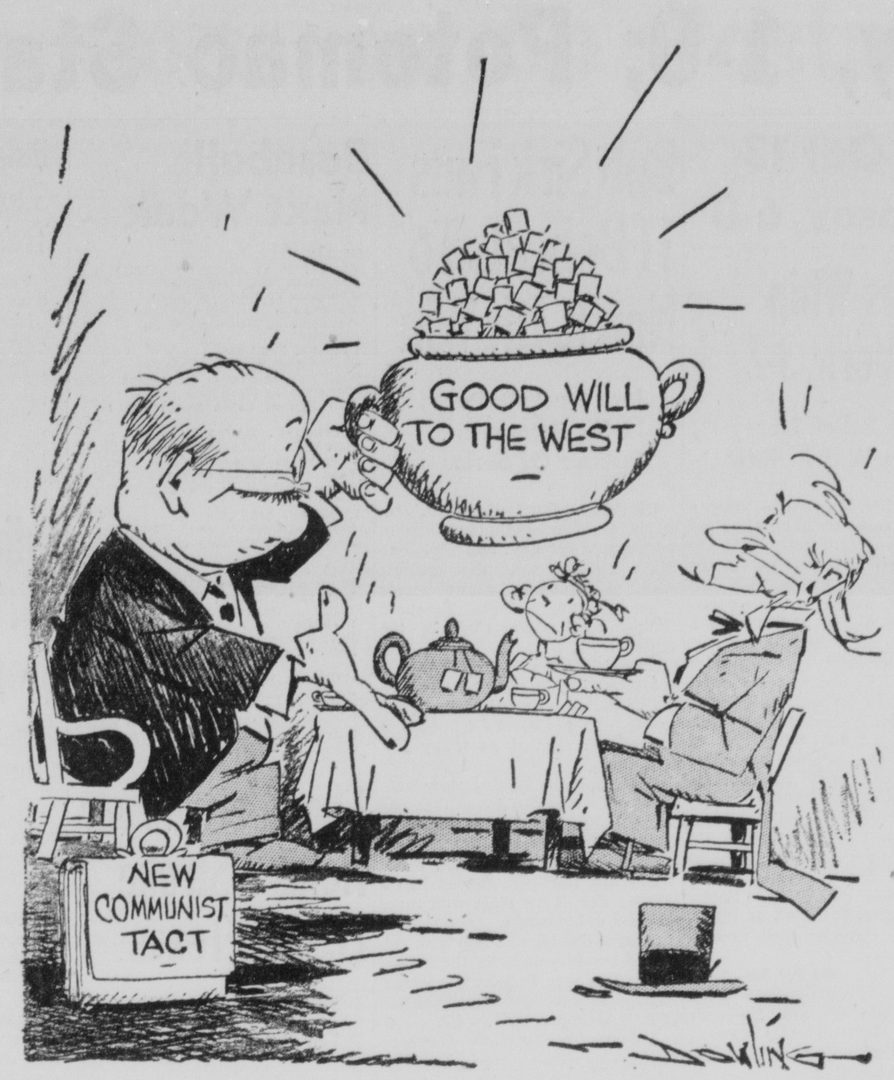

"Communism, at least the Leninist communism prevailing in the Soviet Union, is intrinsically atheistic. No matter who holds the Red helm, be it Malenkov, Bulganin or Khrushchev, he must necessarily be dedicated to extirpating what communism considers as 'religious superstitions.'"

Nevertheless, the people of these countries do not forget their traditions entirely and when such a festival as Christmas or Easter comes along, there is a nostalgia for the old ways. This cannot be erased even in Soviet Russia where efforts in that direction have been made with vehemence since 1917. Father Bissonnette tells a story which is perhaps symptomatic of the emotional response to the challenge of atheism:

"The fact is that young people were still being married in church, baptized and educated in the faith. They were even becoming adept in answering the ridicule heaped on religion. When one atheistic lecturer ridiculed belief in a God, because, as he put it, the world was functioning so smoothly it did not need a God, he got this reply from his listeners: 'That just shows how stupid you are and how smart God is. God is so intelligent that He can make a world which can run by itself.'"

"Here, Have 20 Or 30 Lumps"

GOP Governors Won't 'Buy' Dick Nixon For President If Ike Doesn't Run

By Drew Pearson

WASHINGTON—Top Republican governors in Washington this week rebelled privately but vigorously against the idea of accepting Vice President Nixon as the GOP candidate if Ike doesn't run.

Informed that the President had been trying to sell "his boy Dick," GOP governors threw up their hands. They remembered the all too recent Gallup Poll showing Kefauver running far ahead of Nixon in a test presidential heat. And no matter how much Ike likes Dick, GOP politicos are making it clear they don't like Dick themselves.

It was to sell Nixon that Ike bowed out of the proposed trip to San Francisco for the 10th anniversary of the United Nations. The excuse Eisenhower gave was that his schedule was too crowded. When San Franciscans checked his schedule, however, they found it was not crowded, but that Ike was just pushing Nixon to the fore instead.

NOTE—Simultaneous word from the White House continues to be that Ike just doesn't want to run and that it will take more than a team of horses to pull him into the race.

Washington Pipeline

It's a safe prediction that Anthony Eden will win the British elections. He should gain around 90 seats . . . The Federal Reserve Board is seriously considering increasing margin rates on the stock market again—this time up to 80 per cent . . . Senator Fulbright of Arkansas will stage a full-dress probe of proxy fights. The Wolfson battle with Montgomery Ward will be a feature . . . Arkansans were amused when Carroll Cone, Washington lobbyist and vice president of Pan American Airways, made a speech in Little Rock urging Senator McClellan of Arkansas for president. If McClellan hadn't been featured in the McCarthy hearings last spring, he would have been a dead duck politically, even in Arkansas . . . Able Solicitor General Simon Sobeloff, who refused to sign one of Attorney General Brownell's "witch hunting" briefs before the Supreme Court, can have a judgeship anytime he wants it . . . Thurman Arnold, when assistant attorney general, got a U. S. Circuit judgeship when he started to prosecute Pan American Airways during the Roosevelt administration. Harlan F. Stone, attorney general under Coolidge, got a Supreme Court judgeship when he started to prosecute the Aluminum Corporation of America. Justice Department officials who are conscientious but don't conform politically get judgeships handed them on a silver platter no matter what political party is in power... Politicos recall that it was after Adlai Stevenson publicly blasted Senator McCarthy that the White House belatedly lowered the boom on Joe; also, after Stevenson blasted dawdling over Quemoy-Matsu, that Eisenhower got busy on a cease-fire.

Oyster Admirals

It looks as if the chief beneficiaries from the oyster digging by Navy men at government expense near Newport News, Va., were the admirals. An investigation by the Navy at Cheatham Annex, Va., recently reported by this column, shows that for years civilian workers have been employed by the Navy Department at the taxpayers' expense to dig oysters and send them to the high brass in Washington and Norfolk.

Although junior officers were officially cited in the investigation report, it now develops that among the admirals who got the oysters were Vice Adm. "Oyster Forks Charley" Fox, Rear Adm. John Ends Wood, former commander of the Norfolk Supply Center, and Adm. T. Earle Hipp, also stationed in Norfolk.

Admiral Wood, now retired and living at Elkins Park, Pa., was quite frank in admitting that he relished oysters.

"Did you know, admiral," he was asked by this column, "that oyster dagging was going on at Cheatham Annex?"

"Yes," said the admiral, "as a matter of fact I received a quart personally every once in a while. But as far as I knew, they were being gathered during off-duty hours."

"Did you assume, admiral, that the employes at Cheatham were volunteering their free time to supply oysters for Navy officers?"

"Well," parried the admiral, "there are all kinds of good things down in that part of the country—fish, oysters, lobster. I just assumed some of the officers went out on weekends and picked up these oysters."

Actually, oyster digging for the benefit of admirals by Navy personnel cost the taxpayer about $2,000 a year.

Consumer Champion

It isn't often that a high-up official who loses his job goes back home to run for humble office. Usually he sets up a plush law firm in Washington, or becomes a lobbyist or just rusticates.

However, Tom Buchanan, hard-hitting former chairman of the Federal Power Commission, has gone back to his home town of Beaver, Pa., to run for judge of the Court of Common Pleas.

Buchanan is the FPC chairman who did almost more than any other man to protect consumers of natural gas and electricity from the big gas and power companies.

As a result, Sen. Bob Kerr of Oklahoma, champion of the big gas companies and an oil-gas millionaire himself, helped knock him off the FPC. However, Buchanan is continuing his battle for the consumer by testifying currently against the new camouflaged Kerr Bill (now called the Harris Bill) even at the risk of having Southwest oil and gas money follow him to Western Pennsylvania to get revenge.

U. S. Investment In Spain Logical And Farsighted

By David Lawrence

MADRID — Construction is to begin this month on a pipeline nearly 500 miles long to carry fuel from an Atlantic port on the coast of Spain to three big air bases far inland. All the plans have been made and the workers have been assembled for what is perhaps the most spectacular project in the American defense program inside Spain.

Starting at Cadiz, which is a few miles from Gibraltar, and running to Seville and then to a point near Madrid and finally across country to Saragossa, this modern means of transportation has been found necessary because of the meager facilities by rail and highway. It will take 435 calendar days to complete the job, and the line should be functioning in the latter half of 1956.

Spanish Government Cooperating

The government of Spain has given every consideration to the American and Spanish contractors who have joined together to build the line, which will cost a little less than $5,000,000 for labor and an equal sum for materials. Bids were taken from various contractors, and the contract was awarded to the lowest bidder. A Spanish company, as is required by regulation here, participates with a minority interest and virtually all the employes are Spanish. The wages paid are those that prevail in Spain and American contractors scrupulously comply with all the requirements for payment of holidays, including Sundays, and for social security compensation. While the wage rate, as set by the unions in cooperation with the government, is not high, relatively speaking, it is to be noted that the price level for living costs is not high here, either.

The entire construction is under the auspices of the U. S. Navy, which functions as a part of the joint military mission headed by General August Kissner of the U. S. Air Forces. The pipeline crosses two mountain ranges, one in the south and one in the north, and will be placed three feet under ground. It can be repaired quickly if there is any sabotage, though it is expected that local guards will be sufficiently vigilant to prevent damage. The line will supply not only the fuel requirements of the American Air Force and Navy but also those of the Spanish military forces. It is a godsend to Spain.

Smallest Sum

This is only a part of the overall program in Spain, where a total of about $300,000,000 will be spent over the next four years in the defense project instituted by the United States with the cooperation of the Spanish authorities. In addition to this, there are some small appropriations for economic aid, so that the total spent by the United States in Spain over a four-year period may be around $500,000,000. This is, however, the smallest sum spent in any European country which plays a major part in the Allied defense plans.

Thus, latest figures from the U. S. Department of Commerce show that Britain has received in economic aid alone nearly $7,000,000,000 and France $5,200,000,000, West Germany $3,800,000,000, Italy $2,700,000,000, Greece $1,300,000,000, and the Netherlands $1,100,000,000. Even Russia between the end of the war and 1947 got $426,000,000, and all of Eastern Europe about $1,100,000,000. But Spain for unexplained reasons, has been neglected and only now are officials in Washington awakening to the strategic importance of this country.

It would take so little, relatively speaking, to bolster the Spanish economy and strengthen the whole country as assure effective military cooperation with the United States that it is unfortunate the Iberian Peninsula as a whole has not come in for more attention in the past. For, with the American Navy assuming the biggest responsibility in the Mediterranean and the American Air Force using the new bases here as an operational front that can send planes into the heartland of Europe, it is nothing less than a tragedy that so much time already has been lost.

When France was defeated in 1940 and Amreicans air power came into the war in 1941, the only bases available were those in Britain. The war might have been shortened if the U. S. Strategic Air Force could have had bases like those it is building today in Spain. If, moreover, the political situation inside Britain should some day produce a restraint against our use of bases there for atomic warfare, the Spanish bases will provide an invaluable alternative. America's defense investment in Spain, therefore, is as logical as it is farsighted.

Baering Down On The News

By Arthur "Bugs" Baer

If Sam Rayburn never lives to see the back of his neck he has had the greatest honor that can be inflicted on a man.

They staked Sam to a yard-a-plate dinner in Washington some testimonial burps ago. The edge was taken off the butter knives by another $100-a-plate spread to Governor Byrnes the same evening. When you eat that high on the hog you rate the ears.

There were some good speeches at the Byrnes dinner but nobody can rip the calico like Harry Truman. He put in a shill for Sam that rattled the tapped telephones for miles around.

The two smorgasbords the same night meant the Mason-Dixon Line is still a barbed parallel. The Southern Democrats not only don't see squint-to-glint with the Northern Demos but they don't eat pie-to-knife or bib-to-neck.

What the wayward busters of the cotton-chopping bailiwicks proved is they have enough money to pick out their own tunes in the automat slots.

Anytime a Northern or a Southern Democrat packs a C-note in a Republican administration it indicates man's inhumanity to man sometimes declares a dividend or two.

About this time we were figuring the Democrats didn't have a clink left in a tin cup. Or a rustle in a billfold.

But then they came up with a century-certificate-of-meritorious solvency. And spend it at one clip for a whirl at the delicatessen.

We assure you with the most solemn statistics that while the Democrats were in office no Republican had a stack of anything but autumn leaves.

The Republican office-fodder was flatter than carpet pads from 1932 to around 1952. We remember the GOP ran a victory dinner in 1948 but it was from memory.

Operation Expression

By Brother Barnabas

"I know what I want to say, but I don't know how to say it" is often heard when one is awkwardly trying to express himself. "You know what I mean."

No, you don't know what he means. Maybe he knows, maybe not. His expression is unclear, and what he wanted to say is lost in a mental fog.

Emily Post would say it were better to leave him in that state than say it for him and thus add to his confusion by making him aware of his dullness.

In Creation there are various modes of expression, beginning with the lower orders and reaching up to man, who only has the power of articulate speech.

Good For The Soul

Aside from oral expression man has other media for revealing his thoughts, feelings and desires. He can smile, frown, laugh, show hate, love, and worship, by gesticulating, genuflecting, tipping hats to ladies, if hats are still worn. I heard of a man who couldn't talk when he had to carry his hand in a sling. He had a stoppage in his speech.

Expression is good for the soul. A psychiatric patient was all bottled up with grief. The doctor said "she must cry, or she will die."

What you say on short notice often reveals your character. If in putting up the picture of wife's first husband you hit the wrong nail, do you ejaculate "Jehoshaphat," or something less pious?

The other day Eisenhower entertained the prime minister of Thailand, the Honorable Field Marshall P. Pibuksonggram. On the way to the golf links they passed several places of amusement, including the Senate and House of Representatives.

The game was so exciting that the visitor forgot what he came for, and the President forgot how to spell his name.

A Fine Art

What the guest from Thailand said when he drove the ball over the green into a sand-trap is not recorded. But if the battle of Waterloo was won on the playing fields of Eton, I see no reason why we cannot conclude that some of the battles of diplomacy are won on the golf links of Washington.

Knowing when to speak and when to refrain, is a fine art. There is "a time to keep silence and a time to speak" (Eccl. 3:7).

A certain man was invited to a swell party. Among those present would be artists, actors, socialites, sportsmen, writers and others in the social whirl.

He prepared for the evening by reading up on all the matters of current interest that might appeal to the several groups represented.

At the party he listened and talked in about the right proportion, and kept the company greatly diverted. One of the women was in stitches.

On the way out he heard the hostess ask this woman what she thought of the man. She replied, "Oh, that man! He talks rather a lot, doesn't he?"

He learned his lesson. Said he: "Hereafter, the moment I arrive at a party, I take out a book and read." As a result he hears some one say: "Who is that man over there who hasn't said a word all evening? He's fascinating, do introduce me."

This will shock you, all ye who approach the hymeneal altar with trepidation. Organize to win. Marshall all the powers of your persuasive eloquence and take the citadel of her heart with a brilliant coup.

Since this is "Music Week," it would be fitting that you propose with a vocal number:

"Let me call you Sweetheart,
I'm in love with you,
Let me hear you whisper
that you love me too."

If she joins you in the singing it's a "go."

If you don't sing, a generous bank account will do. You may be surprised to learn later that she had been waiting for you all her life.

Starts Third Year

While we are all stepping high and congratulating our beloved Queen City on being a "lot perter" than she was 200 years ago, let us not forget tomorrow's celebration of Mother's Day, with all its beautiful symbolism.

Another anniversary, unknown to fame, would pass by unnoticed but for the confession of the particeps criminis.

The fictitious "Brother Barnabas" is supplied by a ghost writer, as you may guess. With this entry he begins the third year of performance.

One week ago two tiny candles graced the birthday cake which the editor baked and presented, metaphorically speaking.

I wish you could have had a piece of it. Some like it, some prefer leeks and garlic.

You can join the confraternity if you have five minutes, six cents and a certificate of good moral character, although if you are hard pressed the last may be waived.

Inexpressibly yours,

BROTHER BARNABAS

Reactions To Drugs Usually Are On An Allergic Basis

By Dr. Theodore R. Van Dellen

Drug reactions are so common, most of us know something about them. Ringing of the ears after taking quinine, developing a rash after the use of penicillin, and falling asleep after taking an antihistaminic tablet are but a few illustrations. These side effects are not always easy to avoid.

When a remedy is given to treat a disease in one organ it may affect another part adversely. Some good drugs have been forced off the market because their reactions were more annoying than the symptoms for which the drug was used originally.

Now and then, however, these side effects are so desirable, the manufacturer finds a new use for the medication. The antihistaminics, for example are prescribed, for hives and asthma but the ingredients also act on the nervous system, making some users drowsy. A few manufacturers have capitalized on this soporific influence and sell their products as "new, non-barbiturate sedatives."

The amphetamines offer another illustration. These products, known popularly as benzedrine and dexedrine, are useful in certain conditions because of their stimulating properties. But they also curb appetite and, for several years, have been used as an adjunct in treating obesity.

Nicotinic acid, part of the vitamin B complex, is employed in pellagra but in addition, it is prescribed in poor circulation because it dilates the blood vessels.

Side effects should not be confused with toxic reactions which are more serious and occasionally endanger the patient's life. Digitalis is beneficial in certain heart disorders when prescribed in proper dosage but large amounts are harmful. The same can be said of curare, the South American Indian poison; small doses relieve pain and muscle spasm whereas large quantities are toxic.

Some ill effects are traceable to idiosyncrasies in which the compound does the opposite of what was intended. Sedatives are given to induce sleep but now and then make the individual wide awake, excited, or even maniacal.

But drug reactions usually are on an allergic basis. Asthma, hives, and eczema are the most common manifestations. In most instances, allergy develops gradually, but sometimes the reaction occurs the first time the preparation is taken.

In others, symptoms result from a minute quantity of a remedy that previously could be taken with impunity.

Individuals bothered along this line get a tremendous wallop from tiny doses. This is particularly true among older people who cannot handle everyday medications. Small amounts of sedatives put them to sleep and a minute dose of quinine creates unusual dizziness and ear ringing. These persons are sensitive rather than allergic to the action of the drug.

UGLY HANDS

D. S. writes: Some women have such nice hands but mine are always red and ugly looking. I do only the average amount of housework.

REPLY

Women with nice hands protect them with gloves and apply creams or lubricating lotions. Some women find the new silicone products helpful as protectives.

YOU ARE NORMAL

R. D. writes: I have a slight lump under my chin which the doctor said is due to infection of the submental gland. Does this mean I'm off my rocker?

REPLY

No. Sub means under and mentum, the chin. The submental gland, therefore, is located under the chin.

SHOT TIME

Mrs. L. writes: When is the best time for babies to be vaccinated?

REPLY

During the first six months of life. When done early, there are fewer reactions but if they should occur, they are less severe. Furthermore, protection seems to last longer than if the procedures are done at school age.

To the limit of space, questions pertaining to the prevention of disease will be answered. Personal replies will be made when return stamped envelope is inclosed. Telephone inquiries not accepted. Dr. Van Dellen will not make diagnoses or prescribe for individual diseases.

Try And Stop Me!

By Bennett Cerf

Be brief, was George Bernard Shaw's unfailing advice to aspiring writers. I was walking down the Embankment in London with him one day when a young writer held out his hand and announced, "My name is Rothschild, Mr. Shaw." Shaw, without so much as breaking his stride, answered, "Goodbye, Mr. Rothschild."

"That"—he told me a moment later—"is brevity."

Brevity is not always so simple to attain. The eloquent Woodrow Wilson once remarked that it would take him two weeks to prepare a ten-minute speech, one week for a speech of an hour. Asked how long he would need to prepare a two-hour speech, he replied, "That I can do—right now."

Overheard in the coffee shop of a downtown skyscraper: "I better be getting back to my desk or I'll be late for quitting time."

You're Telling Me!

By William Ritt

Britain's new prime minister, Sir Anthony Eden, should play a star part in international affairs. Among other qualifications Sir Anthony is certainly handsome enough for a top role.

A college dean suggested to a Cleveland educators' conference that teachers be required to conduct classes only three hours a day. What an even greater break that would be for the pupils!

The New York Philharmonic-Symphony orchestra will tour the U. S. That's music to Uncle Sam's ears.

Michigan State College's name has been changed to the Michigan State University of Agriculture and Applied Science. How're they gonna get all that on one little old school pennant?

A sure sign of spring, says Milt, the sterling printer, is when the street chuck holes become visible.

Senator Knowland Not So 'Irregular'

If one looks only at the voting record of Senator William F. Knowland, Republican leader in the Senate, he appears more nearly a "regular" than his statements on foreign policy make him out to be.

At the 1953 and 1954 sessions, Senator Knowland went down the line with the administration on every important roll call but those on the Bricker amendment and censure of McCarthy. He was one of a minority of Republicans voting in 1953 against a proposal by Senator McCarthy to penalize foreign aid recipients if they traded with Red China. Also in 1953, Knowland voted against a move by Senator John W. Bricker to forbid trial in foreign courts of U. S. troops serving with NATO.

But when it comes to the U.N., the U.S., and Red China, Knowland has consistently opposed administration attempts at keeping the door open for negotiations with Red China. Before he became majority leader, as chairman of the Senate Republican Policy Committee in 1953, Knowland introduced a resolution calling for U. S. withdrawal from the U.N. if Red China were admitted. In the end, the Senate declared that "it is the sense of Congress that the Chinese Communist government should not be admitted."

Knowland was advocating a blockade of Red China as long ago as February 7, 1953. He became acting majority leader only on June 10, 1953. He was elected majority leader on August 4, after the death of Senator Taft.

Curiously, five senators who were absent from that caucus were on record as favoring a postponement of choosing a successor to Taft. They were Styles Bridges (N.H.), McCarthy, Bricker, Herman Welker (Ida.), and George W. Malone (Nev.), all members of the Republican right wing for which Knowland is becoming increasingly the spokesman.

Knowland on November 27, 1954, repeated his demand for a blockade of Red China, at the same time saying that he had not consulted with the State or Defense Departments. Secretary of State Dulles first and then President Eisenhower ruled out a blockade as an "act of war."

Then on December 1 and 2, Knowland twice voted against Senate censure or condemnation of Sen. McCarthy. There followed a series of statements from President Eisenhower, the White House, and Knowland, saying the reports of differences between them were being exaggerated. And on January 4 Senate Republicans re-elected Knowland as their leader.

As recently as April 27, Knowland attacked the administration's willingness to negotiate with the Red Chinese. At the same time he said his opposition on this score did not—"up to the present moment"—affect his position as Republican leader.

These Days

By George E. Sokolsky

The Battle Against God

No matter what is being done in some countries to kill God, somehow the memory of His loving kindness lingers and the men of power discover themselves to be dwarfed things in His presence. I was reading recently a radio talk made in Albania which contained these paragraphs:

"Education against superstitions is of great importance. But, unfortunately, many parents do little to educate their children in a spirit which will free them of religious superstitions. Why is it so? In reality the parents do their best to teach them how to keep clean and how to respect grown people. They also help them understand the facts of the present (word missing). But they forget to educate their children in a way which will free them of religious superstitions which are very harmful, especially for children.

"Tales about God, such as nothing can escape the so-called God's eye and that the smallest sin is punished, exert a strong effect on children. So do the stories about the horrible tortures in purgatory and those which say that man's steps are shadowed by a devil."

It is interesting to note that all the efforts of the atheists, backed by all the power of government, cannot penetrate into the family circle. What is here said about Albania can be applied to all the countries behind the iron curtain. No matter what they do and what they say, mothers continue to bootleg God into the home, at great risk to themselves, for their own children may be government spies.

The speaker on the broadcast, whose name is not given, tells this:

'At home we must listen to our parents. They tell us tales about God. So I again forget the words of my teacher and respect only what my mother says.' Another pupil, the daughter of religious parents, writes: 'When I am at school I hardly believe in God, but when I get home I begin to believe in God.' This disharmony between the family and the school mutilates the child's soul, harms, and make difficult the development of his will, and teaches the pupil to become a hypocrite."

Parents are called upon to stop teaching doctrines of Christianity in their homes. They are warned that such children are bound to have unhappy lives, by which is meant that they will be precluded from joining the ruling party and therefore their opportunities in life will be limited.

Father Georges Bissonnette, the Roman Catholic priest who was expelled from Moscow, explains this attitude:

"Communism, at least the Leninist communism prevailing in the Soviet Union, is intrinsically atheistic. No matter who holds the Red helm, be it Malenkov, Bulganin or Khrushchev, he must necessarily be dedicated to extirpating what communism considers as 'religious superstitions.'"

Nevertheless, the people of these countries do not forget their traditions entirely and when such a festival as Christmas or Easter comes along, there is a nostalgia for the old ways. This cannot be erased even in Soviet Russia where efforts in that direction have been made with vehemence since 1917. Father Bissonnette tells a story which is perhaps symptomatic of the emotional response to the challenge of atheism:

"The fact is that young people were still being married in church, baptized and educated in the faith. They were even becoming adept in answering the ridicule heaped on religion. When one atheistic lecturer ridiculed belief in a God, because, as he put it, the world was functioning so smoothly it did not need a God, he got this reply from his listeners: 'That just shows how stupid you are and how smart God is. God is so intelligent that He can make a world which can run by itself.'"

GOP Governors Won't 'Buy' Dick Nixon For President If Ike Doesn't Run

By Drew Pearson

WASHINGTON—Top Republican governors in Washington this week rebelled privately but vigorously against the idea of accepting Vice President Nixon as the GOP candidate if Ike doesn't run.

Informed that the President had been trying to sell "his boy Dick," GOP governors threw up their hands. They remembered the all too recent Gallup Poll showing Kefauver running far ahead of Nixon in a test presidential heat. And no matter how much Ike likes Dick, GOP politicos are making it clear they don't like Dick themselves.

It was to sell Nixon that Ike bowed out of the proposed trip to San Francisco for the 10th anniversary of the United Nations. The excuse Eisenhower gave was that his schedule was too crowded. When San Franciscans checked his schedule, however, they found it was not crowded, but that Ike was just pushing Nixon to the fore instead.

NOTE—Simultaneous word from the White House continues to be that Ike just doesn't want to run and that it will take more than a team of horses to pull him into the race.

Washington Pipeline

It's a safe prediction that Anthony Eden will win the British elections. He should gain around 90 seats . . . The Federal Reserve Board is seriously considering increasing margin rates on the stock market again—this time up to 80 per cent . . . Senator Fulbright of Arkansas will stage a full-dress probe of proxy fights. The Wolfson battle with Montgomery Ward will be a feature . . . Arkansans were amused when Carroll Cone, Washington lobbyist and vice president of Pan American Airways, made a speech in Little Rock urging Senator McClellan of Arkansas for president. If McClellan hadn't been featured in the McCarthy hearings last spring, he would have been a dead duck politically, even in Arkansas . . . Able Solicitor General Simon Sobeloff, who refused to sign one of Attorney General Brownell's "witch hunting" briefs before the Supreme Court, can have a judgeship anytime he wants it . . . Thurman Arnold, when assistant attorney general, got a U. S. Circuit judgeship when he started to prosecute Pan American Airways during the Roosevelt administration. Harlan F. Stone, attorney general under Coolidge, got a Supreme Court judgeship when he started to prosecute the Aluminum Corporation of America. Justice Department officials who are conscientious but don't conform politically get judgeships handed them on a silver platter no matter what political party is in power . . . Politicos recall that it was after Adlai Stevenson publicly blasted Senator McCarthy that the White House belatedly lowered the boom on Joe; also, after Stevenson blasted dawdling over Quemoy-Matsu, that Eisenhower got busy on a cease-fire.

Oyster Admirals

It looks as if the chief beneficiaries from the oyster digging by Navy men at government expense near Newport News, Va., were the admirals. An investigation by the Navy at Cheatham Annex, Va., recently reported by this column, shows that for years civilian workers have been employed by the Navy Department at the taxpayers' expense to dig oysters and send them to the high brass in Washington and Norfolk.

Although junior officers were officially cited in the investigation report, it now develops that among the admirals who got the oysters were Vice Adm. "Oyster Forks Charley" Fox, Rear Adm. John Ends Wood, former commander of the Norfolk Supply Center, and Adm. T. Earle Hipp, also stationed in Norfolk.

Admiral Wood, now retired and living at Elkins Park, Pa., was quite frank in admitting that he relished oysters.

"Did you know, admiral," he was asked by this column, "that oyster dagging was going on at Cheatham Annex?"

"Yes," said the admiral, "as a matter of fact I received a quart personally every once in a while. But as far as I knew, they were being gathered during off-duty hours."

"Did you assume, admiral, that the employes at Cheatham were volunteering their free time to supply oysters for Navy officers?"

"Well," parried the admiral, "there are all kinds of good things down in that part of the country—fish, oysters, lobster. I just assumed some of the officers went out on weekends and picked up these oysters."

Actually, oyster digging for the benefit of admirals by Navy personnel cost the taxpayer about $2,000 a year.

Consumer Champion

It isn't often that a high-up official who loses his job goes back home to run for humble office. Usually he sets up a plush law firm in Washington, or becomes a lobbyist or just rusticates.

However, Tom Buchanan, hard-hitting former chairman of the Federal Power Commission, has gone back to his home town of Beaver, Pa., to run for judge of the Court of Common Pleas.

Buchanan is the FPC chairman who did almost more than any other man to protect consumers of natural gas and electricity from the big gas and power companies.

As a result, Sen. Bob Kerr of Oklahoma, champion of the big gas companies and an oil-gas millionaire himself, helped knock him off the FPC. However, Buchanan is continuing his battle for the consumer by testifying currently against the new camouflaged Kerr Bill (now called the Harris Bill) even at the risk of having Southwest oil and gas money follow him to Western Pennsylvania to get revenge.

U. S. Investment In Spain Logical And Farsighted

This is only a part of the overall program in Spain, where a total of about $300,000,000 will be spent over the next four years in the defense project instituted by the United States with the cooperation of the Spanish authorities. In addition to this, there are some small appropriations for economic aid, so that the total spent by the United States in Spain over a four-year period may be around $500,000,000. This is, however, the smallest sum spent in any European country which plays a major part in the Allied defense plans.

Thus, latest figures from the U. S. Department of Commerce show that Britain has received in economic aid alone nearly $7,000,000,000 and France $5,200,000,000, West Germany $3,800,000,000, Italy $2,700,000,000, Greece $1,300,000,000, and the Netherlands $1,100,000,000. Even Russia between the end of the war and 1947 got $426,000,000, and all of Eastern Europe about $1,100,000,000. But Spain for unexplained reasons, has been neglected and only now are officials in Washington awakening to the strategic importance of this country.

It would take so little, relatively speaking, to bolster the Spanish economy and strengthen the whole country as assure effective military cooperation with the United States that it is unfortunate the Iberian Peninsula as a whole has not come in for more attention in the past. For, with the American Navy assuming the biggest responsibility in the Mediterranean and the American Air Force using the new bases here as an operational front that can send planes into the heartland of Europe, it is nothing less than a tragedy that so much time already has been lost.

When France was defeated in 1940 and Amreicans air power came into the war in 1941, the only bases available were those in Britain. The war might have been shortened if the U. S. Strategic Air Force could have had bases like those it is building today in Spain. If, moreover, the political situation inside Britain should some day produce a restraint against our use of bases there for atomic warfare, the Spanish bases will provide an invaluable alternative. America's defense investment in Spain, therefore, is as logical as it is farsighted.

Baering Down On The News

By Arthur "Bugs" Baer

If Sam Rayburn never lives to see the back of his neck he has had the greatest honor that can be inflicted on a man.

They staked Sam to a yard-a-plate dinner in Washington some testimonial burps ago. The edge was taken off the butter knives by another $100-a-plate spread to Governor Byrnes the same evening. When you eat that high on the hog you rate the ears.

There were some good speeches at the Byrnes dinner but nobody can rip the calico like Harry Truman. He put in a shill for Sam that rattled the tapped telephones for miles around.

The two smorgasbords the same night meant the Mason-Dixon Line is still a barbed parallel. The Southern Democrats not only don't see squint-to-glint with the Northern Demos but they don't eat pie-to-knife or bib-to-neck.

What the wayward busters of the cotton-chopping bailiwicks proved is they have enough money to pick out their own tunes in the automat slots.

Anytime a Northern or a Southern Democrat packs a C-note in a Republican administration it indicates man's inhumanity to man sometimes declares a dividend or two.

About this time we were figuring the Democrats didn't have a clink left in a tin cup. Or a rustle in a billfold.

But then they came up with a century-certificate-of-meritorious solvency. And spend it at one clip for a whirl at the delicatessen.

We assure you with the most solemn statistics that while the Democrats were in office no Republican had a stack of anything but autumn leaves.

The Republican office-fodder was flatter than carpet pads from 1932 to around 1952. We remember the GOP ran a victory dinner in 1948 but it was from memory.

Operation Expression

By Brother Barnabas

"I know what I want to say, but I don't know how to say it" is often heard when one is awkwardly trying to express himself. "You know what I mean."

No, you don't know what he means. Maybe he knows, maybe not. His expression is unclear, and what he wanted to say is lost in a mental fog.

Emily Post would say it were better to leave him in that state than say it for him and thus add to his confusion by making him aware of his dullness.

In Creation there are various modes of expression, beginning with the lower orders and reaching up to man, who only has the power of articulate speech.

Good For The Soul

Aside from oral expression man has other media for revealing his thoughts, feelings and desires. He can smile, frown, laugh, show hate, love, and worship, by gesticulating, genuflecting, tipping hats to ladies, if hats are still worn. I heard of a man who couldn't talk when he had to carry his hand in a sling. He had a stoppage in his speech.

Expression is good for the soul. A psychiatric patient was all bottled up with grief. The doctor said "she must cry, or she will die."

What you say on short notice often reveals your character. If in putting up the picture of wife's first husband you hit the wrong nail, do you ejaculate "Jehoshaphat," or something less pious?

The other day Eisenhower entertained the prime minister of Thailand, the Honorable Field Marshall P. Pibuksonggram. On the way to the golf links they passed several places of amusement, including the Senate and House of Representatives.

The game was so exciting that the visitor forgot what he came for, and the President forgot how to spell his name.

A Fine Art

What the guest from Thailand said when he drove the ball over the green into a sand-trap is not recorded. But if the battle of Waterloo was won on the playing fields of Eton, I see no reason why we cannot conclude that some of the battles of diplomacy are won on the golf links of Washington.

Knowing when to speak and when to refrain, is a fine art. There is "a time to keep silence and a time to speak" (Eccl. 3:7).

A certain man was invited to a swell party. Among those present would be artists, actors, socialites, sportsmen, writers and others in the social whirl.

He prepared for the evening by reading up on all the matters of current interest that might appeal to the several groups represented.

At the party he listened and talked in about the right proportion, and kept the company greatly diverted. One of the women was in stitches.

On the way out he heard the hostess ask this woman what she thought of the man. She replied, "Oh, that man! He talks rather a lot, doesn't he?"

He learned his lesson. Said he: "Hereafter, the moment I arrive at a party, I take out a book and read." As a result he hears some one say: "Who is that man over there who hasn't said a word all evening? He's fascinating, do introduce me."

This will shock you, all ye who approach the hymeneal altar with trepidation. Organize to win, Marshall all the powers of your persuasive eloquence and take the citadel of her heart with a brilliant coup.

Since this is "Music Week," it would be fitting that you propose with a vocal number:

"Let me call you Sweetheart,
I'm in love with you,
Let me hear you whisper
that you love me too."

If she joins you in the singing it's a "go."

If you don't sing, a generous bank account will do. You may be surprised to learn later that she had been waiting for you all her life.

Starts Third Year

While we are all stepping high and congratulating our beloved Queen City on being a "lot perter" than she was 200 years ago, let us not forget tomorrow's celebration of Mother's Day, with all its beautiful symbolism.

Another anniversary, unknown to fame, would pass by unnoticed but for the confession of the particeps criminis.

The fictitious "Brother Barnabas" is supplied by a ghost writer, as you may guess. With this entry he begins the third year of performance.

One week ago two tiny candles graced the birthday cake which the editor baked and presented, metaphorically speaking.

I wish you could have had a piece of it. Some like it, some prefer leeks and garlic.

You can join the confraternity if you have five minutes, six cents and a certificate of good moral character, although if you are hard pressed the last may be waived.

Inexpressibly yours,

BROTHER BARNABAS

Reactions To Drugs Usually Are On An Allergic Basis

By Dr. Theodore R. Van Dellen

Drug reactions are so common, most of us know something about them. Ringing of the ears after taking quinine, developing a rash after the use of penicillin, and falling asleep after taking an antihistaminic tablet are but a few illustrations. These side effects are not always easy to avoid.

When a remedy is given to treat a disease in one organ it may affect another part adversely. Some good drugs have been forced off the market because their reactions were more annoying than the symptoms for which the drug was used originally.

Now and then, however, these side effects are so desirable, the manufacturer finds a new use for the medication. The antihistaminics, for example are prescribed, for hives and asthma but the ingredients also act on the nervous system, making some users drowsy. A few manufacturers have capitalized on this soporific influence and sell their products as "new, non-barbiturate sedatives."

The amphetamines offer another illustration. These products, known popularly as benzedrine and dexedrine, are useful in certain conditions because of their stimulating properties. But they also curb appetite and, for several years, have been used as an adjunct in treating obesity.

Nicotinic acid, part of the vitamin B complex, is employed in pellagra but in addition, it is prescribed in poor circulation because it dilates the blood vessels.

Side effects should not be confused with toxic reactions which are more serious and occasionally endanger the patient's life. Digitalis is beneficial in certain heart disorders when prescribed in proper dosage but large amounts are harmful. The same can be said of curare, the South American Indian poison; small doses relieve pain and muscle spasm whereas large quantities are toxic.

Some ill effects are traceable to idiosyncrasies in which the compound does the opposite of what was intended. Sedatives are given to induce sleep but now and then make the individual wide awake, excited, or even maniacal.

But drug reactions usually are on an allergic basis. Asthma, hives, and eczema are the most common manifestations. In most instances, allergy develops gradually, but sometimes the reaction occurs the first time the preparation is taken.

In others, symptoms result from a minute quantity of a remedy that previously could be taken with impunity.

Individuals bothered along this line get a tremendous wallop from tiny doses. This is particularly true among older people who cannot handle everyday medications. Small amounts of sedatives put them to sleep and a minute dose of quinine creates unusual dizziness and ear ringing. These persons are sensitive rather than allergic to the action of the drug.

UGLY HANDS

D. S. writes: Some women have such nice hands but mine are always red and ugly looking. I do only the average amount of housework.

REPLY

Women with nice hands protect them with gloves and apply creams or lubricating lotions. Some women find the new silicone products helpful as protectives.

YOU ARE NORMAL

R. D. writes: I have a slight lump under my chin which the doctor said is due to infection of the submental gland. Does this mean I'm off my rocker?

REPLY

No. Sub means under and mentum, the chin. The submental gland, therefore, is located under the chin.

SHOT TIME

Mrs. L. writes: When is the best time for babies to be vaccinated?

REPLY

During the first six months of life. When done early, there are fewer reactions but if they should occur, they are less severe. Furthermore, protection seems to last longer than if the procedures are done at school age.

To the limit of space, questions pertaining to the prevention of disease will be answered. Personal replies will be made when return stamped envelope is inclosed. Telephone inquiries not accepted. Dr. Van Dellen will not make diagnoses or prescribe for individual diseases.

Try And Stop Me!

By Bennett Cerf

Be brief, was George Bernard Shaw's unfailing advice to aspiring writers. I was walking down the Embankment in London with him one day when a young writer held out his hand and announced, "My name is Rothschild, Mr. Shaw." Shaw, without so much as breaking his stride, answered, "Goodbye, Mr. Rothschild."

"That"—he told me a moment later—"is brevity."

Brevity is not always so simple to attain. The eloquent Woodrow Wilson once remarked that it would take him two weeks to prepare a ten-minute speech, one week for a speech of an hour. Asked how long he would need to prepare a two-hour speech, he replied, "That I can do—right now."

Overheard in the coffee shop of a downtown skyscraper: "I better be getting back to my desk or I'll be late for quitting time."

Fort Hill High School's Sentinel kept their city record unblemished and retained their lead of 1½ games in the Bi-State Baseball Conference by edging Allegany High School yesterday at Campobello by the score of 1-0.

In posting their second straight city series victory Coach John J. "Bobby" Cavanaugh's tossers scored the lone run in a southpaw pitching duel between Wayne Murray and Don Paye in the fourth inning when Dorcil Kline was hit by a pitched ball, pilfered second and advanced to third and home on successive errors by Camper infielders.

Paye and Murray yielded only three hits each, all singles. Murray failed to issue a pass and whiffed eleven to register his second win of the campaign. Paye, who against Flintstone on Monday, walked three, hit one batsman and fanned five. His record is now 1-3.

LaSalle Beats Beall, 6-5

LaSalle remained right on the heels of Fort Hill in the championship race by nosing out Beall High at Penn Avenue Field, 6-5. It was the fifth consecutive victory for Coach George Geatz's Explorers and gave them a season record of five victories and two defeats.

Lefty Roberts started on the mound for LaSalle but was replaced by Joe Conroy who received credit for the win. Ronnie Rice went all the way for Beall.

Conroy rapped a pair of doubles, Roberts had two singles and Kenny Klosterman socked a homer for the Explorers. Hansel garnered three hits while Rice and Keister had two each for the Mountaineers.

Valley Has Big Inning

Valley High School scored all of its runs in the second inning and staved off a last inning threat to eke out a 5-4 decision over Bruce High School at Westernport.

Coach Johnny Meyers' Black Knights grouped three hits with a walk and four errors for their five tallies in the second. The Bulldogs scored three runs in the 7th and had the bases loaded when an infield out ended the game. Ronnie Young got credit for the win after Lefty Fazenbaker came on the scene in the 7th to retire the only man he faced.

The Lonaconing team was held to three hits by Donnie Wilkinson—all in the second inning. The Bruce hurler fanned 11 stickers and yet suffered his first loss of the season. Kenny Broadwater with a double and single was the only player with more than one hit.

Hyndman Cops Slugfest

Thirty-three hits, including four inside-the-park home runs were chalked up by the teams as Hyndman High's Hornets won over Mt. Savage High's Indians at Hyndman by the score of 14-13.

Mt. Savage chalked up 18 hits and Hyndman amassed 15.

Three runs in the last inning enabled Coach Ed McVicker's Pennsylvanians to pull the game out of the fire. Don May who started was relieved by Lehman in the 6th and then came back to finish the game and notch his fourth straight win of the campaign. Wayne Fleegle went the route for the Indians.

Tom Birmingham and Dick Walters of Mt. Savage and May and Terry Rizer of Hyndman hit roundtrippers. Six players had three hits each.

Newcombe Rejoins Brooklyn Dodgers

BROOKLYN, May 6 (AP) — Repentant Don Newcombe patched up his quarrel with Manager Walter Alston and Dodger officials today and rejoined the club as it left for Philadelphia and the West.

The 235-pound Brooklyn pitcher was suspended and sent home from the ball park yesterday after he had refused for the second time within 10 days to pitch in batting practice.

Braves Trim Cards

ST. LOUIS, May 6 (AP)—Andy Pafko set the pace tonight, driving in three runs with a pair of doubles, as the Milwaukee Braves clubbed five St. Louis Cardinal pitchers for nine hits and an 8-5 victory at Busch Stadium. Charlie White's bat was good for two other Milwaukee tallies.

Double Protest Marks Nats' Win

WASHINGTON, May 6 (AP) — Washington defeated Baltimore, 2-1, tonight in a game protested by both Manager Paul Richards of the Orioles and Manager Chuck Dressen of the Senators. Dean Stone held Baltimore to seven hits in edging Saul Rogovin in a mound duel.

Richards protested after Bob Kline singled to start the last of the seventh. Dean Stone bunted down the first base line and was ruled safe when Rogovin tripped him after fielding the ball.

Bob Turley Strikes Out 13 As Yankees Beat Bosox, 6-0

Hurls 2-Hitter, Bags Fifth Win; Mantle, Hunter Hit Homers

BOSTON, May 6 (AP)—Bob Turley, New York's rifle-armed righthander, struck out 13 batters and gave but two hits today as he shut out the Boston Red Sox 6-0 for his fifth straight victory.

Jim Piersall's solid single in the sixth inning and Bill Klaus' infield roller to shortstop which was scored a hit with two out in the ninth were the only Boston blows.

Meanwhile Turley's teammates made the most of seven hits off three sox hurlers—Frank Sullivan, Russ Kemmerer and George Susce—including home runs by Mickey Mangle and Bill Hunter.

Pirates Whip New York, 3-2

Wade Relief Star In 6th Win In Row

NEW YORK, May 6 (AP) — Veteran Ben Wade came on in relief to put down a New York rally with the bases loaded and none out in the ninth tonight as Pittsburgh's Pirates extended their surprising winning streak to six games with a 3-2 victory over the Giants.

Wade, a 32-year-old righthander who never has beaten the Giants, stepped in to protect rookie Ron Kline's second victory after New York had put the tying run on third and the potential winning marker on second against the young righthander.

But the veteran reliefer purposely walked Alvin Dark to fill the bases, then got Whitey Lockman to hit into a forceout at the plate, fanned pinch-hitter Bobby Hofman and ended it all as pinch-hitter Billy Gardner flied to center.

Petersburg Cancels Remaining Contests

Coach Jesse Riggleman announced last night that Petersburg High School has cancelled its two remaining baseball games with Moorefield and Franklin on account of the death of Wayne Kuykendall. The latter was fatally injured in an automobile accident while returning home from a game at Keyser Tuesday.

Chandler Harper Holds 7-Stroke Lead In Texas

Posts 5-Under Par 65 For 36-Hole Card 134

FORT WORTH, May 6 (AP) — Chandler Harper shot a 5-under-par 65 that gave him a seven-stroke lead over the rest of the field in the $25,000 Colonial Invitational golf tournament today.

Second, and facing a long uphill fight for the $5,000 first prize, were Antonio Cerda of Buenos Aires, Dow Finsterwald of Athens, Ohio, and Julius Boros, of Mid Pines, N.C., at 141.

Cerda Shoots 67

Right behind this trio at 142 were Jack Burke, Kiamesha Lake, N.Y.; Jack Fleck, Davenport, Iowa; and veteran Ed (Porky) Oliver, Lamont, Ill. Burke has a 69, Fleck a 72, and Oliver 71.

Five players were bunched at 143 including Byron Nelson, Roanoke, Tex., who had won every major tournament when he decided to go into semi-retirement. He has been chasing the Colonial pot of gold for years but has yet to make it. He had a 71 today to go with his first round 72.

Harper's 65 equaled the course record for 9, 18, and 36 holes. Most rounds were played today in bright sunshine with late finishers bucking a strong cross wind and an occasional spatter of rain.

Harper racked up seven birdies in tieing the course record held by Ben Hogan. He was four under for the first nine with a 31 despite a two over par 6 on the 15th hole finished the back nine in 34 strokes, one under par.

Ben Hogan Cards 145

Ben Hogan, who has made this home town tournament practically his own with four victories was tied with three others with 145, including Cary Middlecoff of Memphis, the Masters Open champion.

Fort Hill High School's Sentinel kept their city record unblemished and retained their lead of 1½ games in the Bi-State Baseball Conference by edging Allegany High School yesterday at Campobello by the score of 1-0.

In posting their second straight city series victory Coach John J. "Bobby" Cavanaugh's tossers scored the lone run in a southpaw pitching duel between Wayne Murray and Don Paye in the fourth inning when Dorcil Kline was hit by a pitched ball, pilfered second and advanced to third and home on successive errors by Camper infielders.

Paye and Murray yielded only three hits each, all singles. Murray failed to issue a pass and whiffed eleven to register his second win of the campaign. Paye, who against Flintstone on Monday, walked three, hit one batsman and fanned five. His record is now 1-3.

LaSalle Beats Beall, 6-5

LaSalle remained right on the heels of Fort Hill in the championship race by nosing out Beall High at Penn Avenue Field, 6-5. It was the fifth consecutive victory for Coach George Geatz's Explorers and gave them a season record of five victories and two defeats.

Lefty Roberts started on the mound for LaSalle but was replaced by Joe Conroy who received credit for the win. Ronnie Rice went all the way for Beall.

Conroy rapped a pair of doubles, Roberts had two singles and Kenny Klosterman socked a homer for the Explorers. Hansel garnered three hits while Rice and Keister had two each for the Mountaineers.

Valley Has Big Inning

Valley High School scored all of its runs in the second inning and staved off a last inning threat to eke out a 5-4 decision over Bruce High School at Westernport.

Coach Johnny Meyers' Black Knights grouped three hits with a walk and four errors for their five tallies in the second. The Bulldogs scored three runs in the 7th and had the bases loaded when an infield out ended the game. Ronnie Young got credit for the win after Lefty Fazenbaker came on the scene in the 7th to retire the only man he faced.

The Lonaconing team was held to three hits by Donnie Wilkinson—all in the second inning. The Bruce hurler fanned 11 stickers and yet suffered his first loss of the season. Kenny Broadwater with a double and single was the only player with more than one hit.

Hyndman Cops Slugfest

Thirty-three hits, including four inside-the-park home runs were chalked up by the teams as Hyndman High's Hornets won over Mt. Savage High's Indians at Hyndman by the score of 14-13.

Mt. Savage chalked up 18 hits and Hyndman amassed 15.

Three runs in the last inning enabled Coach Ed McVicker's Pennsylvanians to pull the game out of the fire. Don May who started was relieved by Lehman in the 6th and then came back to finish the game and notch his fourth straight win of the campaign. Wayne Fleegle went the route for the Indians.

Tom Birmingham and Dick Walters of Mt. Savage and May and Terry Rizer of Hyndman hit roundtrippers. Six players had three hits each.

Newcombe Rejoins Brooklyn Dodgers

BROOKLYN, May 6 (AP) — Repentant Don Newcombe patched up his quarrel with Manager Walter Alston and Dodger officials today and rejoined the club as it left for Philadelphia and the West.

The 235-pound Brooklyn pitcher was suspended and sent home from the ball park yesterday after he had refused for the second time within 10 days to pitch in batting practice.

Braves Trim Cards

ST. LOUIS, May 6 (AP)—Andy Pafko set the pace tonight, driving in three runs with a pair of doubles, as the Milwaukee Braves clubbed five St. Louis Cardinal pitchers for nine hits and an 8-5 victory at Busch Stadium. Charlie White's bat was good for two other Milwaukee tallies.

Double Protest Marks Nats' Win

WASHINGTON, May 6 (AP) — Washington defeated Baltimore, 2-1, tonight in a game protested by both Manager Paul Richards of the Orioles and Manager Chuck Dressen of the Senators. Dean Stone held Baltimore to seven hits in edging Saul Rogovin in a mound duel.

Both managers' protests stemmed from interference plays. Dressen protested after Mickey Vernon doubled to start the sixth inning. Roy Sievers popped out and Jim Busby lifted a pop fly halfway down the first base line.

Richards protested after Bob Kline singled to start the last of the seventh. Dean Stone bunted down the first base line and was ruled safe when Rogovin tripped him after fielding the ball.

Bob Turley Strikes Out 13 As Yankees Beat Bosox, 6-0

Hurls 2-Hitter, Bags Fifth Win; Mantle, Hunter Hit Homers

BOSTON, May 6 (AP)—Bob Turley, New York's rifle-armed righthander, struck out 13 batters and gave but two hits today as he shut out the Boston Red Sox 6-0 for his fifth straight victory.

Jim Piersall's solid single in the sixth inning and Bill Klaus' infield roller to shortstop which was scored a hit with two out in the ninth were the only Boston blows.

Meanwhile Turley's teammates made the most of seven hits off three sox hurlers—Frank Sullivan, Russ Kemmerer and George Susce—including home runs by Mickey Mangle and Bill Hunter.

Hunter's two run homer in the eighth inning merely added insurance for Turley.

Mantle got the Yankees started with his home run into the Sox bullpen in right field just beyond the glove of the leaping Jackie Jensen in the first inning. It was Mantle's fifth of the season.

Pirates Whip New York, 3-2

Wade Relief Star In 6th Win In Row

NEW YORK, May 6 (AP) — Veteran Ben Wade came on in relief to put down a New York rally with the bases loaded and none out in the ninth tonight as Pittsburgh's Pirates extended their surprising winning streak to six games with a 3-2 victory over the Giants.

Wade, a 32-year-old righthander who never has beaten the Giants, stepped in to protect rookie Ron Kline's second victory after New York had put the tying run on third and the potential winning marker on second against the young righthander.

But the veteran reliefer purposely walked Alvin Dark to fill the bases, then got Whitey Lockman to hit into a forceout at the plate, fanned pinch-hitter Bobby Hofman and ended it all as pinch-hitter Billy Gardner flied to center.

Five of Keyser's errors were charged to shortstop Dick Shuck.

Elk Garden held a 6-1 lead in the top of the fourth inning but Keyser tied it up in the fifth and put the game on ice with two runs in the sixth.

Roland Raines, third Keyser pitcher, got credit for his fourth victory of the campaign.

Petersburg Cancels Remaining Contests

Coach Jesse Riggleman announced last night that Petersburg High School has cancelled its two remaining baseball games with Moorefield and Franklin on account of the death of Wayne Kuykendall. The latter was fatally injured in an automobile accident while returning home from a game at Keyser Tuesday.

Final rites were held yesterday for Kuykendall with interment at Lahmansville.

Donnie Markwood and Eddie Nelson were not injured as seriously as first reported, Riggleman said. Nelson's lung was slightly moved and Markwood suffered a fractured arm.

Chandler Harper Holds 7-Stroke Lead In Texas

Posts 5-Under Par 65 For 36-Hole Card 134

FORT WORTH, May 6 (AP) — Chandler Harper shot a 5-under-par 65 that gave him a seven-stroke lead over the rest of the field in the $25,000 Colonial Invitational golf tournament today.

The terrific round equaled three course records and gave the Chattanooga, Tenn., veteran a 36 hole total of 134.

Second, and facing a long uphill fight for the $5,000 first prize, were Antonio Cerda of Buenos Aires, Dow Finsterwald of Athens, Ohio, and Julius Boros, of Mid Pines, N.C., at 141.

Cerda Shoots 67

Right behind this trio at 142 were Jack Burke, Kiamesha Lake, N.Y.; Jack Fleck, Davenport, Iowa; and veteran Ed (Porky) Oliver, Lamont, Ill. Burke has a 69, Fleck a 72, and Oliver 71.

Five players were bunched at 143 including Byron Nelson, Roanoke, Tex., who had won every major tournament when he decided to go into semi-retirement. He has been chasing the Colonial pot of gold for years but has yet to make it. He had a 71 today to go with his first round 72.

Harper's 65 equaled the course record for 9, 18, and 36 holes. Most rounds were played today in bright sunshine with late finishers bucking a strong cross wind and an occasional spatter of rain.

Harper racked up seven birdies in tieing the course record held by Ben Hogan. He was four under for the first nine with a 31 despite a two over par 6 on the 15th hole finished the back nine in 34 strokes, one under par.

Ben Hogan Cards 145

Ben Hogan, who has made this home town tournament practically his own with four victories was tied with three others with 145, including Cary Middlecoff of Memphis, the Masters Open champion.

Ten Topnotch Colts To Go Postward In Kentucky Derby

Nashua Made 4-5 Favorite In 81st Race

Summer Tan Is 2-1, Swaps 5-1; Purse For Victor Is $108,400

By JOHN CHANDLER

LOUISVILLE, Ky., May 6 (AP)—Ten of the country's finest 3-year-old colts have a fling at fame and fortune tomorrow in what will be the richest Kentucky Derby since America's most colorful racing classic was inaugurated in 1875.

A good portion of the 100,000 fans expected to jam ancient Churchill Downs for the mile and one quarter classic are looking for another slam bang duel between Nashua, odds-on favorite, and Summer Tan.

There were no surprise late comers when secretary Lincol Plaut closed the entry box. The pot will hit $152,000 with 10 starters, the winner collecting $108,400.

Smallest Field Since 1948

With 10 starters, this 81st run for the roses will have the smallest field since Citation defeated five opponents seven years ago.

The slim field comes through the courtesy of Nashua, of William Woodward Jr.'s Belair Stud, and Mrs. John W. Galbreath's Summer Tan. It costs $1,500 to race tomorrow, and a few want to tangle with a pair of the best sophomore runners to come around in many a year.

The festivities will be carried on CBS TV and radio from 4:15-5:45 p. m., (EST) with post time set for 4:30.

There also was strong support for the Cain Hoy stable entry of Flying Fury and Racing Fool, owned by Capt. Harry F. Guggenheim. Fans recall that Giggenheim's Dark Star got home first for a $51.80 for $2 payoff in the 1953 derby, when Native Dancer was supposed to win.

Nashua 4-5 Choice

The track oddsmaker listed Nashua, to be ridden by Eddie Arcaro, at 4-5, with Summer Tan and Jockey Eric Guerin at 2-1. Swaps, with champion rider Willie Shoemaker up, was made 5-1, a drop from yesterday's 6-1. The Cain Hoy entry was 10-1, with Henry Moreno aboard Racing Fool and Conn McCreary on Flying Fury.

Others in the race are Jean's Joe, owned by the Murcain stable of Mrs. Clint Murchison and Mrs. Wofford Cain; Harvey C. Fruehauf's Blue Lem, Clifford Mooers' Nabesna; G. Rollie White's Trim Destiny, and Honesy Alibi, from the W-L Ranch of Harry M. Warner. Jean's Joe was quoted at 15-1. You can almost name your price on the others.

Steve Brooks rides Jean's Joe, with Chris Rogers aboard Blue Lem, Johnny Adams on Nabesna, Willie Harmatz on Honeys Alibi, and Louis Cook piloting Trim Destiny. All starters carry 126 pounds.

Arcaro will be shooting for his sixth derby, and Belair stud and trainer Sunny Jim Fitzsimmons for a fourth roses triumph. McCreary has won two derbies, while Brooks, Guerin and Moreno have one apiece.

Good weather, the rule all week, is forecast for tomorrow, but the weather man saw a chance of possible scattered showers later in the day or Saturday night.

Bassett Is Through Due To Eye Injury

PHILADELPHIA, May 6 (AP)—Percy Bassett, interim featherweight champion while titleholder Sandy Saddler was in the service, apparently is finished as a boxer because of a badly detached retina of the left eye.

Dr. P. Robb McDonald said today Bassett is suffering from the disease of the eye and will be operated on Monday. Dr. McDonald said Bassett has a "50-50 chance" that a successful operation will give Bassett normal use of the eye.

Pennsylvania State Athletic Commission rules forbid boxers from continuing once they have suffered this eye injury because of the danger the injury might recur, costing the sight of the eye.

New Speed Records Expected In Sports Car Races May 15

Cunningham Latest Entry; Canada Will Televise Big Event

Speed records at the sports car races Sunday, May 15 at the Cumberland Airport are almost sure to be broken. Faster machines coupled with the nation's most skillful drivers should produce new lap times for the tricky 1.6 mile course.

In order to accommodate nearly 350 contestants (more than double last year's entry) the number of races has been increased from six to eleven, starting earlier and running later in the day then originally planned.

Cunningham To Drive

William R. Carscaden, chairman of the Cumberland Lions Club, last night announced that Briggs S. Cunningham, of Greens Farms, Conn., one of the nation's leading drivers, is among the latest entries to be received for the local classic. Cunningham will drive car No. 30, a Maserati, Type 300-S.

James H. Kimberly, one of the 1954 national champions, and winner of 19 out of his last 22 races, is also listed among the noted drivers coming here. He will be at the wheel of a Ferrari.

G. W. Fleming, Westport, Conn., president of the Sports Car Club of America, will also be on hand to view the races.

Estimates on the size of the crowd that will witness the program run from 20,000 to 30,000. General admission is $1 and there is parking space adjacent to the airport course for 10,000 cars.

Profits For Charity

All profits will go toward a sight conservation program for underprivileged children. This is a project of the Cumberland Lions Club, sponsor of the races which will be under the technical direction of the Steel Cities Region (Pittsburgh of Sports Car Club of America.

Unlike any other sports car race site in the country the Cumberland Municipal Airport course is overlooked by a large high bank enabling all the spectators to see all the action. The first of the eleven races will get under way at 8:30 a. m.

The pre-race events include, a "drivers school" where owners seeking their competition licenses and mastery of techniques can practice on Friday (May 13) and mandatory practice on Saturday (May 14) beginning at noon.

CBC To Televise Events

There will be at least five Canadian drivers in the races and the Canadian Broadcasting Company, eager to give the home folks the best in coverage, will have its television cameramen on the spot.

Among the out-of-town papers that have made reservations for special wire service are the Cleveland Plain Dealer and the Pittsburgh Sun-Telegraph.

Ten Topnotch Colts To Go Postward In Kentucky Derby

Nashua Made 4-5 Favorite In 81st Race

Summer Tan Is 2-1, Swaps 5-1; Purse For Victor Is $108,400

By JOHN CHANDLER

LOUISVILLE, Ky., May 6 (AP)—Ten of the country's finest 3-year-old colts have a fling at fame and fortune tomorrow in what will be the richest Kentucky Derby since America's most colorful racing classic was inaugurated in 1875.

A good portion of the 100,000 fans expected to jam ancient Churchill Downs for the mile and one quarter classic are looking for another slam bang duel between Nashua, odds-on favorite, and Summer Tan.

There were no surprise late comers when secretary Lincol Plaut closed the entry box. The pot will hit $152,000 with 10 starters, the winner collecting $108,400.

Smallest Field Since 1948

With 10 starters, this 81st run for the roses will have the smallest field since Citation defeated five opponents seven years ago.

The slim field comes through the courtesy of Nashua, of William Woodward Jr.'s Belair Stud, and Mrs. John W. Galbreath's Summer Tan. It costs $1,500 to race tomorrow, and a few want to tangle with a pair of the best sophomore runners to come around in many a year.

Two weeks ago racing appetities were whetted when Nashua lunged up in the final strides to beat Summer Tan in the Wood Memorial at Jamaica.

The festivities will be carried on CBS TV and radio from 4:15-5:45 p. m., (EST) with post time set for 4:30.

Swaps, a California speed demon owned by Rex Ellsworth, looms as the chief threat should Nashua or Summer Tan run into difficulties.

There also was strong support for the Cain Hoy stable entry of Flying Fury and Racing Fool, owned by Capt. Harry F. Guggenheim. Fans recall that Giggenheim's Dark Star got home first for a $51.80 for $2 payoff in the 1953 derby, when Native Dancer was supposed to win.

Nashua 4-5 Choice

The track oddsmaker listed Nashua, to be ridden by Eddie Arcaro, at 4-5, with Summer Tan and Jockey Eric Guerin at 2-1. Swaps, with champion rider Willie Shoemaker up, was made 5-1, a drop from yesterday's 6-1. The Cain Hoy entry was 10-1, with Henry Moreno aboard Racing Fool and Conn McCreary on Flying Fury.

Others in the race are Jean's Joe, owned by the Murcain stable of Mrs. Clint Murchison and Mrs. Wofford Cain; Harvey C. Fruehauf's Blue Lem, Clifford Mooers' Nabesna; G. Rollie White's Trim Destiny, and Honesy Alibi, from the W-L Ranch of Harry M. Warner. Jean's Joe was quoted at 15-1. You can almost name your price on the others.

Steve Brooks rides Jean's Joe, with Chris Rogers aboard Blue Lem, Johnny Adams on Nabesna, Willie Harmatz on Honeys Alibi, and Louis Cook piloting Trim Destiny. All starters carry 126 pounds.

Arcaro will be shooting for his sixth derby, and Belair stud and trainer Sunny Jim Fitzsimmons for a fourth roses triumph. McCreary has won two derbies, while Brooks, Guerin and Moreno have one apiece.

Good weather, the rule all week, is forecast for tomorrow, but the weather man saw a chance of possible scattered showers later in the day or Saturday night.

Hermanettes Play Capital City Tossers

Stitcher Field Scene Of Sunday Twin Bill

Cumberland's Old German Hermanettes will engage the Columbians, of Washington, D. C., 1954 regional champions, in a doubleheader Sunday at 2 p. m. at Stitcher Field.

Last year the capital city team won 55 and lost six games and copped the regionals at Richmond, Va., sweeping four games and holding the opposition to two runs while scoring 18. Mildred Womesley, who is expected to pitch for the Columbians in tomorrow's opener, turned in a 21-3 record in 1954. Ann Herndon, slated to hurl in tomorrow's nightcap affair, was the Columbians' leading hitter in the regionals.

Patricia "Pat" Thompson and Cora Leatherman will twirl for the Hermanettes who split even in an Atlantic Coast League doubleheader with Garvin's Grill of Washington last Sunday. The Columbians are not a member of the league.

Kenneth Grimes and "Buck" Frantz will officiate.

The Hermanettes will practice today at 2 p. m. at Bedford Road Field.

Bassett Is Through Due To Eye Injury

PHILADELPHIA, May 6 (AP)—Percy Bassett, interim featherweight champion while titleholder Sandy Saddler was in the service, apparently is finished as a boxer because of a badly detached retina of the left eye.

Dr. P. Robb McDonald said today Bassett is suffering from the disease of the eye and will be operated on Monday. Dr. McDonald said Bassett has a "50-50 chance" that a successful operation will give Bassett normal use of the eye.

Pennsylvania State Athletic Commission rules forbid boxers from continuing once they have suffered this eye injury because of the danger the injury might recur, costing the sight of the eye.

New Speed Records Expected In Sports Car Races May 15

Cunningham Latest Entry; Canada Will Televise Big Event

Speed records at the sports car races Sunday, May 15 at the Cumberland Airport are almost sure to be broken. Faster machines coupled with the nation's most skillful drivers should produce new lap times for the tricky 1.6 mile course.

In order to accommodate nearly 350 contestants (more than double last year's entry) the number of races has been increased from six to eleven, starting earlier and running later in the day then originally planned.

Cunningham To Drive

William R. Carscaden, chairman of the Cumberland Lions Club, last night announced that Briggs S. Cunningham, of Greens Farms, Conn., one of the nation's leading drivers, is among the latest entries to be received for the local classic. Cunningham will drive car No. 30, a Maserati, Type 300-S.

James H. Kimberly, one of the 1954 national champions, and winner of 19 out of his last 22 races, is also listed among the noted drivers coming here. He will be at the wheel of a Ferrari.

G. W. Fleming, Westport, Conn., president of the Sports Car Club of America, will also be on hand to view the races.

Estimates on the size of the crowd that will witness the program run from 20,000 to 30,000. General admission is $1 and there is parking space adjacent to the airport course for 10,000 cars.

Profits For Charity

All profits will go toward a sight conservation program for underprivileged children. This is a project of the Cumberland Lions Club, sponsor of the races which will be under the technical direction of the Steel Cities Region (Pittsburgh of Sports Car Club of America.

Unlike any other sports car race site in the country the Cumberland Municipal Airport course is overlooked by a large high bank enabling all the spectators to see all the action. The first of the eleven races will get under way at 8:30 a. m.

The pre-race events include, a "drivers school" where owners seeking their competition licenses and mastery of techniques can practice on Friday (May 13) and mandatory practice on Saturday (May 14) beginning at noon.

CBC To Televise Events

There will be at least five Canadian drivers in the races and the Canadian Broadcasting Company, eager to give the home folks the best in coverage, will have its television cameramen on the spot.

Among the out-of-town papers that have made reservations for special wire service are the Cleveland Plain Dealer and the Pittsburgh Sun-Telegraph.

Gets Quick Answer

When a letter from the Mayor and Council of Lonaconing complaining about drainage from the Jackson Mountain Road was read at yesterday session of the Allegany County Commissioners a quick reply was made by J. Walker Chapman, roads supervisor.

Chapman said that the ditches along the road had been cleaned by county workers on Monday and two of the town councilmen informed of that fact. The letter to the commissioners was dated Monday, May 2, and the council met that night.

The roads supervisor also commented that debris from trucks using the road to the town dump has been falling into the ditches adding to the trouble.

CSMC Awards, Rally Set Tomorrow

The annual rally and presentation of awards for the Catholic Student Mission Crusade is scheduled tomorrow at St. Patrick's Catholic Church.

Starting at 3 p. m. from Carroll Hall (LaSalle High) the local units will form a procession that will move to St. Patrick's where services will be conducted. In line will be the CSMC groups from Catholic Girls Central, Ursuline, St. Mary's, LaSalle, St. Peter's of Westernport and the Student Nurses of Sacred Heart Hospital.

The Rev. Robert F. Hopkins, assistant pastor at St. Mary's, who is Western Maryland director for the Propagation of the Faith and Moderator of the CSMC in this area, will present awards for outstanding meritorious accomplishments during the church program. The Rev. John U. Lyness, assistant pastor at St. Patrick's, will preach the sermon. Concluding the program will be Solemn Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament with Very Rev. J. Lawrence Kilkenny, pastor of St. Patrick's, as celebrant.

Chief Justice Taney Assembly Fourth Degree Knights of Columbus will join the procession and provide a color guard.

More than 500 high school students are expected to attend in addition to at least that many adults.

Gets Quick Answer

When a letter from the Mayor and Council of Lonaconing complaining about drainage from the Jackson Mountain Road was read at yesterday session of the Allegany County Commissioners a quick reply was made by J. Walker Chapman, roads supervisor.

Chapman said that the ditches along the road had been cleaned by county workers on Monday and two of the town councilmen informed of that fact. The letter to the commissioners was dated Monday, May 2, and the council met that night.

The roads supervisor also commented that debris from trucks using the road to the town dump has been falling into the ditches adding to the trouble.

Card of Thanks

We are using this means to thank our relatives and friends for the kindness shown us following the death of Mrs. Hilda M. Folk, wife of Gerald Folk, Annapolis, formerly of Westernport. Also we wish to extend our appreciation to those who sent floral tributes and donated the use of their cars for the funeral.

Gerald Folk and Family.

In Memoriam

In memory of Lewis S. Emerick who passed away 2 years ago today, May 7, 1953.

We have no fear of death since you have gone.
And tested the grapevines for their swinging length.
You crossed the stream to see how deep it ran,
And beckoned laughing from the other side.
Whatever the unknown, you were the span.
We had no dread of that which you had tried,
And now you have but opened first death's door to wait for us as you have done before.
Sadly missed by Wife and Family.

We are using this means to thank our relatives and friends for the kindness shown us following the death of Mrs. Hilda M. Folk, wife of Gerald Folk, Annapolis, formerly of Westernport. In Memoriam

In memory of Lewis S. Emerick who passed away 2 years ago today, May 7, 1953.

We have no fear of death since you have gone.
You always went ahead to give us strength,
You climbed the cliffs before you called us on,
And tested the grapevines for their swinging length.
You crossed the stream to see how deep it ran,
And beckoned laughing from the other side.
Whatever the unknown, you were the span,
We had no dread of that which you had tried,
And now you have but opened first death's door to wait for us as you have done before.

Two Are Hurt In Cycle-Auto Mishap Here

Rosemary Corley Is Hospitalized

Admitted to Sacred Heart Hospital with serious injuries was 19-year-old Rosemary Corley, 120 South Mechanic Street, a passenger on the cycle.

Miss Corley suffered a possible fractured collarbone, bruises and lacerations about the body. Her condition late last night was reported as "fair" by attaches.

The driver of the motorcycle, James Leach, 20, of Everett, Pa., was examined at the same hospital.

The accident occurred at 9:02 p.m. as the two motorcyclists, leaving Cumberland, ran into the left side of an auto which was pulling out of the service station, also apparently heading north from the city.

The car, according to police, was driven by William T. Graham, 313 Lincoln Drive, Martinsburg, W.Va. He apparently was uninjured.

The girl who was riding on the rear seat was thrown several feet, according to police, who said Leach was thrown about 10 feet.

Upon investigating the mishap, police found the girl's watch. It had stopped at 9:02 p.m. An attendant in the service station heard the crash which occurred in the center of the road, notified police and an ambulance was called.

Traffic was tied up at the scene of the mishap. However police had it back to normal minutes after arriving on the scene. Investigating Officers were Carl Williams and Harry Iser.

No charges have been filed, police said, pending the outcome of injuries to the two passengers on the cycle.

Rescue Team Leaders

CD Emergency Rescue Unit Is Organized At Amcelle

The unit is headed by John A. Jones, section engineer, who followed organization procedures and training he received in a Rescue Training Instructors' course at Olney.

Rescue teams are but one of the integral parts of the over-all Amcelle emergency plan. The course was given by the Federal Civil Defense Administration and Jones was certified for the training by William G. Barger, Allegany County CD director to the State of Maryland.

Following training and certification at Olney, the Amcelle representative organized courses for team leaders at the plant and 20 weeks of classroom work and practical training in the principal techniques of rescue operations has been completed.

These men have been certified as leaders in rescue work by county, state and federal Civil Defense organizations. Other Amcelle groups are being organized for training, and the trained groups will participate in regular practice sessions.

Flood Control Group To Meet In Westernport

Activities Stressed In Barton Session

The Georges Creek Flood Control Association will conduct its next meeting in Westernport Thursday, June 2, according to Chairman Charles S. Harvey of Shaft.

After conducting its first two sessions in Frostburg, the group moved to Barton for its third meeting Wednesday night. Primary purpose of that gathering was to acquaint the citizens of Barton with the activities of the association in attempting to get a flood control program started for the George's Creek Valley.

John W. Barnard, soil conservationist in Maryland for the U. S. Soil Conservation Service, reported to the Barton delegation on his ideas for a flood control plan for the valley. He expressed optimism about the possibility of obtaining federal aid for such a project.

James Turnbull, state engineer of the U. S. Soil Conservation Service, also expressed optimism and was pleased with the public interest shown in the flood control idea.

District Forester William H. Johnson talked about the part that the State Department of Forests and Parks plays in flood control activities.

Martin M. Gordon, conservation aid in the local office of the Soil Conservation Service, showed a film on flood control activities in the Salt-Wahoo area of Nebraska. Barnard presented questionnaire forms to the Barton group to be used in obtaining data on damages suffered in the past. These forms will be distributed to the public by the volunteer fire companies of Westernport and Barton. They will go especially to property owners who have suffered damages.

Mayor Arthur Hoffa of Barton summarized the activities and plans of the association. Correspondence from Senator J. Glenn Beall and Congressman DeWitt S. Hyde, pledging assistance, also were read. G. Franklin Martens, secretary of the association, also reported on a meeting conducted Tuesday in conjunction with the meeting of the Barton PTA.

Scout Council Plans Camporee At Big Run Park

The 1955 Camporee of Potomac Council, Boy Scouts of America, will be held May 20, 21 and 22 at Big Run State Park, according to Ross O. Decker, council chairman of camping and activities.

Up to 350 scouts from this area are expected to participate in the annual weekend demonstration of scouting skills.

Decker said this year's Camporee will be a "dress up" event, and that each troop and patrol is being asked to bring flags to make the camporee as colorful as possible.

The top event of the meeting, scheduled on Saturday afternoon, May 21, will be an inter-patrol tournament of scouting.

Plan Seven Contests

Seven main contests are scheduled to test the skill of scout teams. They include:

Jousting, three man team; making fire by flint and steel, three man team; rapid dressing, four man team; signaling event, four man team; wood chopping, three man team; tent peg making, three man team, and flap jack contest, by the entire patrol.

Points will be awarded in all events and special recognition given for patrols scoring highest in the tournament.

Decker said patrols will begin arriving at the state park near the Savage River Dam on Friday night and will stay through the noon meal on Sunday. Religious services have been arranged.

Campfire Planned

All camping, cooking and eating is to be done by patrols, which must furnish their own equipment and food. Ribbons will be awarded to patrols which do a good job of camping.

A campfire will be held on Saturday night, May 21, and parents and friends are invited. The opening ceremony will be in charge of Tri-Towns District, which will be the host, and special stunts will be presented by units from each district.

Extra Phone Booths To Be Set Up For Sports Car Races

Additional telephone facilities will be installed at the Cumberland Municipal Airport during the Sports Car Races, according to C. Walter Haschert, local manager.

He said four modern telephone booths will be set up, two at each concession stand, to provide service for the national event planned here May 15.

Haschert said the booths are of the latest type, made of aluminum and glass, which have been ordered for this area.

One of them will be used to replace the wooden booth now located on Baltimore Street, he said.

Krouse Hospitalized

Earl "Zip" Krouse, employe of Hammersmith Brothers Restaurant, 16 Queen City Pavement, collapsed in front of the restaurant yesterday afternoon and was taken to Sacred Heart Hospital where he was admitted for observation.

He was reported to have been sitting in front of the building and "keeled over" on the pavement. City Police Officer Carl Williams investigated and took him to the hospital.

Kimble Will Set Policy For All ESB Contracts

BALTIMORE, May 6 (AP)—Maryland's new Employment Security Board Chief Robert Kimble said today he's working on an iron-clad policy concerning the issuing of service, supply and maintenance contracts by the Department of Employment Security.

He told federal auditors he could not and would not try to justify the way certain service contracts were awarded before he took over.

Federal auditors said they would make an "unusually thorough" investigation into service contracts. This would come, they said, while making their routine check of the way federal funds are handled in the 150-million dollar department.

Among the matters being checked into in a probe of the employment agency is the issuance of a $13,380 floor waxing contract with a firm operated by law partners of the ESB's own legal counsel.

Attorney Joseph Sherbow has been named by Atty. Gen. C. Ferdinand Sybert to study this and other phases of department operations.

Kimble said he would set up "rigid regulations which will insure competitive bidding on every purchase of goods or services," Kimble said.

Kimble replaced Daniel E. Klein, who resigned as chairman of the ESB. John L. Estes, Cumberland labor leader, also resigned, as has William H. Mahaney, administrator for the department.

Sherbow has asked them and other officials of the agency for statements about a real estate transaction involving a proposed leasing arrangement with the department.

Local Company In Business 60 Years

The Cumberland Mattress Company, which was established on Orchard Street some 60 years ago, will move this month to its new home on Necessity Street.

Joseph C. Kenney of LaVale, manager said the company has purchased the former Star Dye Works, 513 Necessity Street, and will move to the new quarters by May 15.

The mattress firm, he said, has purchased modern equipment and installed it in the new location which has 5,400 feet of floor space, a parking lot and garage.

Operations will be on the first floor and the second floor will be used for storage, he reported.

The only other similar firms in this section, he said, are located in Baltimore, Parkersburg, W. Va., and Altoona and Pittsburgh, Pa.

The firm was established by the late Charles Thomasen shortly after he moved here from Germany. The founder about 45 years ago sold the business to his brother-in-law, Richard Wiegand, and Richard's son, William.

Richard's grandson, Kenney, took over the business several years ago after William Wiegand retired because of ill health.

Kenney said the firm employes four full-time and one part-time worker in its business, which is devoted chiefly to the rebuilding of mattresses of all types, plus the manufacture of pillows and cushions of all types.

Due to its flexibility of operation, the company does considerable custom work.

He said most mattress firms, because of their set production lines, must charge premium prices for special orders for odd-size mattresses, soft or glider cushions or pillows.

The firm said it occasionally fills an order for feather mattresses, which it will make on order.

Not all of the business is local, Kenney said, citing work which has been shipped to Washington state and even as far as Italy.

Fireman To Get Compensation After Collapse

Commissioner Reilly Authorizes Award

James Hugh Hunter, a city fireman who collapsed last September 24 while fighting a fire on Polk Street, sustained an accidental personal injury arising out of his employment and is entitled to disability compensation, the State Industrial Accident Commission ruled this week.

The compensation award was made Tuesday by Commissioner Simon F. Reilly.

Commissioner Reilly found that Hunter was temporarily totally disabled from last September 24 to December 12 and since then has 60 per cent permanent partial disability. He ruled that 10 per cent of the permanent partial disability resulted from a pre-existing condition. The city had contended that Hunter's collapse resulted from a rheumatic heart condition that had not been detected in various examinations.

The compensation award ordered the Mayor and City Council to pay Hunter temporary total disability at $35 a week from September 28 until December 12, 1954, and $25 permanent partial disability weekly beginning December 13, 1954 and continuing during the continuance of partial disability but not to exceed a total of $6,250.

Besides the compensation awarded by the State Industrial Accident Commission, the city will supplement the payments to the disabled fireman to the extent of an additional approximately $40 a week for the first year of disability.

Commissioner Reilly conducted a hearing in Hunter's case at the Court House here February 4. The fireman then was represented by Attorney Thomas N. Berry and the city was represented by City Attorney Thomas B. Finan.

After collapsing at the fire last September Hunter was taken to the Christian Brothers home on Polk Street and received artificial respiration.

Both parties to this action have a right of appeal to Allegany County Circuit Court. Hunter has said that he would prefer an arrangement whereby he might work for the Fire Department in a limited service capacity.

Silicosis Case Record Filed

The State Industrial Accident Commission record in the case of John Lee Kelly, 89 West Main Street, Frostburg, against the Consolidation Coal Company was filed yesterday in Allegany County Circuit Court.

Kelly, who had worked as a motorman in one of the company's mines for about 25 years, filed for disability compensation when he learned that his lungs had been injured by silicosis.

The State Industrial Accident Commission in March affirmed the Medical Board for Occupational Diseases in its decision in Kelly's case.

Kelly was permanently totally disabled by silicosis as of August 5, 1945, the commission ruled, although he did not know he had silicosis until the spring of 1953. The commission awarded Kelly $23 a week from August 8, 1945 although the total compensation he is to receive may not exceed $4,200.

Consolidation Coal Company now asks Circuit Court to review the commission's finding in the case.

FCC Proposes Rules Limiting Cable Radiation

Says Local Firm Has Cleared Complaints

The Maryland Public Service Commission has forwarded to the City of Cumberland a letter from the Federal Communications Commission regarding that agency's control over community television antenna systems.

The letter was sent by Albert L. Dean, PSC executive secretary, to Thomas B. Finan, city attorney, in connection with city correspondence regarding complaints of radiation from the facilities of the Potomac Valley Television Company.

The FCC added it has proposed a set of rules governing various radiation devices, including television antenna systems.

The rules, it added, are to be adopted in the near future. It declined to predict the final form.

The proposal includes a section for carrier current systems, including wired television systems, which "shall not radiate in excess of 10 microvolts per meter at a distance of 10 feet or more from any point in the system."

The FCC said it has periodically received complaints from Potomac Valley Television Company.

But it explained its records indicate the firm has cleared the complaints to the satisfaction of all concerned.

It said lack of funds prevents the commission from providing radiation measuring services, but that most TV antenna firms have cooperated by making such tests when radiation complaints are brought to their attention.

The FCC added it hopes the proposed rules, when adopted, will bring the needed relief.

Two Are Hurt In Cycle-Auto Mishap Here

Rosemary Corley Is Hospitalized

Two motorcyclists were injured, one seriously, last night in a collision with a car in front of Sisk's Gulf Service Station, 1601 Bedford Street.

Admitted to Sacred Heart Hospital with serious injuries was 19-year-old Rosemary Corley, 120 South Mechanic Street, a passenger on the cycle.

Miss Corley suffered a possible fractured collarbone, bruises and lacerations about the body. Her condition late last night was reported as "fair" by attaches.

The accident occurred at 9:02 p.m. as the two motorcyclists, leaving Cumberland, ran into the left side of an auto which was pulling out of the service station, also apparently heading north from the city.

The car, according to police, was driven by William T. Graham, 313 Lincoln Drive, Martinsburg, W.Va. He apparently was uninjured.

Police said the cycle hit the left front door of the car, split in two, and the cyclists were thrown to the highway opposite the service station.

The girl who was riding on the rear seat was thrown several feet, according to police, who said Leach was thrown about 10 feet.

Upon investigating the mishap, police found the girl's watch. It had stopped at 9:02 p.m. An attendant in the service station heard the crash which occurred in the center of the road, notified police and an ambulance was called.

Traffic was tied up at the scene of the mishap. However police had it back to normal minutes after arriving on the scene. Investigating Officers were Carl Williams and Harry Iser.

No charges have been filed, police said, pending the outcome of injuries to the two passengers on the cycle.

Flood Control Group To Meet In Westernport

Activities Stressed In Barton Session

The Georges Creek Flood Control Association will conduct its next meeting in Westernport Thursday, June 2, according to Chairman Charles S. Harvey of Shaft.

After conducting its first two sessions in Frostburg, the group moved to Barton for its third meeting Wednesday night. Primary purpose of that gathering was to acquaint the citizens of Barton with the activities of the association in attempting to get a flood control program started for the George's Creek Valley.

John W. Barnard, soil conservationist in Maryland for the U. S. Soil Conservation Service, reported to the Barton delegation on his ideas for a flood control plan for the valley. He expressed optimism about the possibility of obtaining federal aid for such a project.

James Turnbull, state engineer of the U. S. Soil Conservation Service, also expressed optimism and was pleased with the public interest shown in the flood control idea.

District Forester William H. Johnson talked about the part that the State Department of Forests and Parks plays in flood control activities.

Martin M. Gordon, conservation aid in the local office of the Soil Conservation Service, showed a film on flood control activities in the Salt-Wahoo area of Nebraska. Barnard presented questionnaire forms to the Barton group to be used in obtaining data on damages suffered in the past. These forms will be distributed to the public by the volunteer fire companies of Westernport and Barton. They will go especially to property owners who have suffered damages.

Mayor Arthur Hoffa of Barton summarized the activities and plans of the association. Correspondence from Senator J. Glenn Beall and Congressman DeWitt S. Hyde, pledging assistance, also were read. G. Franklin Martens, secretary of the association, also reported on a meeting conducted Tuesday in conjunction with the meeting of the Barton PTA.

Kimble Will Set Policy For All ESB Contracts

BALTIMORE, May 6 (AP)—Maryland's new Employment Security Board Chief Robert Kimble said today he's working on an iron-clad policy concerning the issuing of service, supply and maintenance contracts by the Department of Employment Security.

He told federal auditors he could not and would not try to justify the way certain service contracts were awarded before he took over.

Federal auditors said they would make an "unusually thorough" investigation into service contracts. This would come, they said, while making their routine check of the way federal funds are handled in the 150-million dollar department.

Among the matters being checked into in a probe of the employment agency is the issuance of a $13,380 floor waxing contract with a firm operated by law partners of the ESB's own legal counsel.

Attorney Joseph Sherbow has been named by Atty. Gen. C. Ferdinand Sybert to study this and other phases of department operations.

Kimble said he would set up "rigid regulations which will insure competitive bidding on every purchase of goods or services," Kimble said.

Kimble replaced Daniel E. Klein, who resigned as chairman of the ESB. John L. Estes, Cumberland labor leader, also resigned, as has William H. Mahaney, administrator for the department.

Sherbow has asked them and other officials of the agency for statements about a real estate transaction involving a proposed leasing arrangement with the department.

Scout Council Plans Camporee At Big Run Park

The 1955 Camporee of Potomac Council, Boy Scouts of America, will be held May 20, 21 and 22 at Big Run State Park, according to Ross O. Decker, council chairman of camping and activities.

Up to 350 scouts from this area are expected to participate in the annual weekend demonstration of scouting skills.

Decker said this year's Camporee will be a "dress up" event, and that each troop and patrol is being asked to bring flags to make the camporee as colorful as possible.

The top event of the meeting, scheduled on Saturday afternoon, May 21, will be an inter-patrol tournament of scouting.

Plan Seven Contests

Seven main contests are scheduled to test the skill of scout teams. They include:

Jousting, three man team; making fire by flint and steel, three man team; rapid dressing, four man team; signaling event, four man team; wood chopping, three man team; tent peg making, three man team, and flap jack contest, by the entire patrol.

Points will be awarded in all events and special recognition given for patrols scoring highest in the tournament.

Decker said patrols will begin arriving at the state park near the Savage River Dam on Friday night and will stay through the noon meal on Sunday. Religious services have been arranged.

Campfire Planned

All camping, cooking and eating is to be done by patrols, which must furnish their own equipment and food. Ribbons will be awarded to patrols which do a good job of camping.

A campfire will be held on Saturday night, May 21, and parents and friends are invited. The opening ceremony will be in charge of Tri-Towns District, which will be the host, and special stunts will be presented by units from each district.

Extra Phone Booths To Be Set Up For Sports Car Races

Additional telephone facilities will be installed at the Cumberland Municipal Airport during the Sports Car Races, according to C. Walter Haschert, local manager.

He said four modern telephone booths will be set up, two at each concession stand, to provide service for the national event planned here May 15.

Another outside phone booth is permanently located on the airport.

Haschert said the booths are of the latest type, made of aluminum and glass, which have been ordered for this area.

One of them will be used to replace the wooden booth now located on Baltimore Street, he said.
